ARTICLE V - THE DUTIES OF THE SPONSORS

Section 1. The Student Council Sponsors shall:

1. Serve as the main facilitators, role models, and mentors for the Student Council.
2. Cultivate a safe, welcoming, positive club environment.
3. Foster opportunities for leadership development among members.
4. Ensure that students work within the mission and charter of the club, and within the scope of school policies and procedures.
5. Be present at all club-related meetings, informal gatherings, events, activities, outings, and competitions, on and off campus.
6. Record regular attendance.
7. Practice responsible stewardship of the club's financial planning and management including fundraising, cash handling, deposits, donations, P-card use, and purchases.

ARTICLE VI - ELECTIONS

- Section 1. Sophomores and juniors with at least three semesters of experience on Student Council are eligible to run for the position of President. All other positions (Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and School Culture Commissioner) require 2 semesters of experience on Student Council to run.
- Section 2. Officer elections shall take place during third quarter.
- Section 3. Board selections shall begin immediately after the conclusion of officer elections.
- Section 4. The officers shall serve a term of two semesters.

- Section 5. The Vice-President shall validate all petitions. In the event that the Vice-President is running in a Student Council election, they will forfeit this responsibility.
- Section 6. The Vice-President shall be responsible for working with the head sponsor to record all electronic ballots accurately. In the event that the Vice-President is running in a Student Council election, they will forfeit this responsibility.
- Section 7. There shall be a special board election for the officers where the total board vote shall equal 25% of the school-wide popular vote.
- Section 8. In the event that there are more than two candidates for a single officer position, a primary election will be held within Student Council where all voting members will vote. The top two vote getters will move on to the general election. In the event of a tie, all tying candidates for first or second place will move on to the general election.

ARTICLE VII - MEETINGS

- Section 1. Proposed clubs will be discussed in special meetings.
- Section 2. Formal meetings shall be conducted under the procedures outlined in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised which should be available to all board members.
- Section 3. Formal meetings shall take the form as follows:
1. The President shall chair the meeting and call the meeting to order.
 2. In the event of absence or a conflict of interest, the President can defer chairmanship to other officers in the order of: Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and School Culture Commissioner.
 3. Officers shall make weekly officer announcements, which will address officer issues presented by the board, other officers, the administration, and other subjects of relevance.
 4. Committee heads shall make weekly committee announcements, which will detail progress made on projects and other subjects of relevance.
 5. The chair shall open the floor to any old business not settled in previous meetings. Old business is only open to motions.
 6. New business shall follow old business, where new motions shall be presented to the board.
 7. The current officers shall decide the specific procedures of formal meetings, and communicate them with the rest of the board.
 8. The debate shall stop when no further speeches are presented or when a board member moves the previous question.
 9. With a 2/3 majority vote, discussion can end and move on to a formal vote.
 10. Unless specified by the motion, all main motions shall pass with a majority vote.
- Section 4. Special meetings may also be called by the President with the approval of the Vice President, by unanimous consent of the sponsors, or by any four officers. These meetings will follow the rules of formal meetings. The agenda is determined by the person calling for the meeting and should be clearly expressed if the meeting is approved and called to order.

- Section 5. Club proposal meetings do not follow the same procedure as formal meetings. The procedure goes as follows:
1. If the Board unanimously agrees to hear a club proposal, the meeting shall be called to order by the Presiding Officer.
 2. The floor is immediately turned over to a designated Board member, who shall make a formal motion to pass the club proposal.
 3. After the motion is made, the floor belongs to the club representative(s), who can use the time at his/her discretion to explain their club or to answer questions from the Board.
 4. At any time, any Board member except the President may make a motion to close debate. In the event of a majority vote, business immediately moves to the next club without a motion to reconsider.
 5. At the discretion of the chair, the club representatives may be asked to leave the room for the vote.
 6. A motion to adjourn can only be made when either all clubs present are discussed and voted on or when time expires.
 7. A meeting may be called any day of the week.
 8. Any club representative conflict of interest with any Student Council member will be resolved by the officers and sponsors.
- Section 6. Duties of the Chair:
1. The chair is responsible for keeping order in the meeting and ensuring Robert's Rules are followed.
 2. Nobody may speak unless formally recognized by the chair.
 3. The chair has the ability to limit speech and questioning times in order to expedite the meeting and ensure all matters are addressed.
- Section 7. If a student representative from the club is not available to attend a club's meeting, the Clubs Committee may, with the approval of three officers, schedule the meeting for another day. If a representative from the club cannot come on any day, the club must submit a form to StuCo explaining the club's merits and the reason for which no member can attend the meeting.
- Section 8. A majority of all voting members shall constitute quorum.
- Section 9. A majority of all voting members present and voting shall be required to pass any main motion. Board members who abstain will function as a non-vote and shall be excluded from vote total. Abstentions are not counted as "nay" votes.
- Section 10. Minutes for all meetings shall be made available to the public within a week of their approval. A complete and/or an abridged version must be made easily accessible to constituents, and a complete version must be kept in the archives. This duty shall be carried out by the Secretary.
- Section 11. A pre-meeting shall be held by the officers in order to discuss the agenda on a day to be determined by the President and sponsors. This should be a consistent meeting day.

ARTICLE VIII - CHAIRS AND LIAISONS

- Section 1. The leadership roles are designed to further assist in the efficient management of Student Council Actions. Needs of the council are evaluated every year in collaboration with the officers and sponsors. New roles are determined as needed, and posted for all members to access annually on Canvas.
- Section 2. Those members appointed to leadership positions for the following school year will be selected by means of an application and interview process conducted by the Officers after the annual Induction Ceremony.
- Section 3. In the event that an appointed member does not present commitment to the duties their position pertains to, they may be removed from their leadership position.
- Section 4. Members in any leadership position may resign from their role and assume the role of a board member.
- Section 5. Additional roles may be added throughout the year if needed to further assist the management of Student Council.

ARTICLE IX - MEMBER ATTENDANCE

- Section 1. Attendance will follow the current year's New Trier Student Handbook Attendance Policy.
- Section 2. An accumulation of four unexcused absences for a Student Council member, according to the New Trier Attendance Policy, will result in a conversation with the officers and sponsors to determine possible outcomes.
- Section 3. For an officer, an accumulation of three unexcused absences will automatically begin the impeachment process to be conducted at a formal meeting.

ARTICLE X - IMPEACHMENT

- Section 1. Any member can move to impeach another member during a formal meeting.
- Section 2. The member being impeached will have the opportunity to explain their case.
- Section 3. If the chair of a meeting is up for impeachment, the next-in-line shall chair the meeting and impeachment proceedings.
- Section 4. A 2/3 vote of Student Council's voting members against an impeached member will result in his/her removal.
- Section 5. Impeachable offenses include, but are not limited to:
1. Having an accumulated two unexcused absences in a quarter.
 2. Having misused Student Council resources and facilities in violation of school policies.
 3. Having a violation of the Extracurricular Code.

ARTICLE XI - VACANCIES

- Section 1. A position becomes vacant as a result of resignation, impeachment, or incapacitation.
- Section 2. If there is a vacancy in the presidential office, the Vice-President will assume the position of President.
- Section 3. The procedure for filling a Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer or School Culture Commissioner vacancy is as follows:
1. The election process shall be run by the officer next in the succession.
 2. All current Student Council Board members are eligible to fill the vacancy.
 3. All interested candidates shall be given the opportunity to speak on their own behalf and shall be open to questioning by the board.
 4. The Board shall hold a mandatory election to nominate the top two candidates.
 5. This shall be a closed ballot election within the board to determine the election winner.
 6. In case of a tie, the sponsors will be the tie breaker.
- Section 4. In the instance of a Board member's vacancy, no replacement will be made.
- Section 5. The President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and School Culture Commissioner may resign their office while retaining a position as a Board member.

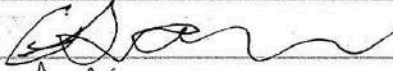

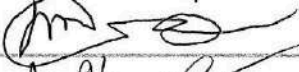

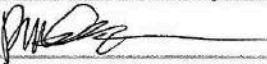

ARTICLE XII - AMENDMENTS

The Constitution, or any part of it, may only be amended by a $\frac{3}{4}$ majority of all voting members of Student Council.
