Delaware
Department of Education

Technology and Related Responsibilities

Directions: With the assistance of your mentor and others complete the information requested on this chart. Technology is a major tool for accessing information about professional standards, content standards, your professional profile, and more. It is important to know how to locate such information when planning and maintaining your personal information and accessing information about students.

State/School/District	Technology Needed	Location/URL	Contact Professional Profile Information
Teacher Quality Survey
Teacher Standards
Student Content Standards
Student Record Keeping System
District Assessment System
Delaware State Testing Information
Electronic Curriculum Resources
Other			