Section 1002.20(24), Florida Statutes, requires each middle school and high school student or the student's parent be provided a two-page summary of the Department of Economic Opportunity's economic security report of employment and earning outcomes. This must be done annually prior to registration and electronic access to the full report must also accompany the summary.

The following links are to the summary and full economic security report for you to distribute to your schools and parents as required by law.
