

English Estates Elementary 21st century – Gingerbread Engineering: Make a Boat out of Foil

The students made boats out of foil and had to see how many gingerbread men the boat could hold (each laminated gingerbread had paperclips taped to the back to add weight). They had a lot of fun problem solving to change their design to hold about 30 gingerbread men.