2021-22 Elementary Instructional Guide for Parents during a required student quarantine

What should I expect of my school?

- Daily work for ELA, math, science, and social studies through a paper-based instructional packet and/or online instructional resources.

- Communication from your child's teacher about instructional expectations

- Support for students who have questions or need assistance

What does my school expect of me?

- Complete daily work for ELA, math, science, and social studies through an instructional packet and/or online instructional resources.

- Ask for assistance from the teacher or support personnel as needed

- Participate in teacher check-in through agreed upon mode.

The Year at a Glance Pacing Guide and Online Resources located on the district's website can be used for additional online resources https://www.stjohns.k12.fl.us/year-at-a-glance/

Who can I call for assistance if school staff is not available?

ELA and Reading
Rebecca England, Ed.D., Elementary ELA Program Specialist
(904) 547-7548
rebecca.england@stjohns.k12.fl.us

Science and Social Studies
Lacole Rudin, Elementary Science and Social Studies Program Specialist
(904) 547-7551
Lacole.Rudin@stjohns.k12.fl.us

Math
Andrea Dieckman, Elementary Math Program Specialist
(904) 547-7745
andrea.dieckman@stjohns.k12.fl.us

Accessing Online Textbooks

To log into your online textbook resources for math, science, social studies, and iReady follow the directions below.

Step 1: Navigate to your school's website.

Step 2: Click the ONLINE TEXTBOOKS link.

Step 3: If your child attends a K-8 school, Click K-5.

Step 4: Find your grade level and click the book that you want to access.

Student Login Information

Username: s######

Password: the same password students use to log into the computer at school (animal and number)

If you need help with obtaining your child's student number and password, contact your child's teacher.