1. What is the Basic Needs School Closet program?	In August 2017, Governor Carney announced an initiative to stock basic needs school closets in 45 high-needs Delaware schools. Initial partnerships have been established to support the closets. The purpose of the Basic Needs Closets is to provide elementary and middle school students across the state with increased access to free products designed to meet students’ needs so they can effectively participate in class and to have a greater chance of success. Today the Basic Needs School Closets initiative is being lead from the Office of the Lieutenant Governor.
