

Name _____ Date _____ Period _____

Unit 3: Good and Evil in Literature
Mary Shelley's Frankenstein Anticipation Activity

INSTRUCTIONS: Read the ten statements below carefully. Then circle the number that best represents your feelings or opinion about each statement, rating them 1-5.

1=Strongly Disagree; 2=Disagree; 3=Neutral; 4= Agree; and 5=Strongly Agree.

Remember that because these are your opinions there are no right or wrong answers. However, please be prepared to defend your stance as we discuss these statements as a class.

| | |
|-------------------|---|
| 1 2 3 4 5 | It is a parent's job, more than society's, to nurture his/her child. |
| 1 2 3 4 5 | With the advent of genetic engineering and "designer" babies, parents now have less important roles in the birth process. |
| 1 2 3 4 5 | All children are innately good. |
| 1 2 3 4 5 | Every child needs "mothering" in order to become "human." |
| 1 2 3 4 5 | All parents love their children unconditionally, no matter how they look or act. |
| 1 2 3 4 5 | Children who are "deformed" physically or mentally should be isolated from society. |