

French and Indian War Web Activity

Directions: Visit the following web page and answer the questions based on the interactive map.

Note: I cannot grade you based on the answers you submit online. You MUST fill in your answers on this worksheet.*

Use: <http://mrnussbaum.com/fiwarint/>

- 1.The British victory at Fort Niagara meant control of the eastern _____.
- 2.The events of the Battle of Fort William Henry, located at Lake George, were depicted in The Last of the _____, a famous novel by James Fenimore Cooper.
- 3.Before Fort Duquesne was built, English settlers had built a small fort on the forks of the Ohio River known as Fort _____.
- 4.The French occupied Fort Duquesne until _____ (enter a year).
- 5.The Battle of Thousand Islands lasted for eight days, until the French ran out of _____.
- 6.The Ohio River is formed at present-day _____, Pennsylvania.
- 7.After the British defeated the French at Louisbourg, they could attack the French in Quebec using the _____.
- 8.In the Battle of the Plains of Abraham (at Quebec City), British General James _____ was mortally wounded.
- 9.After the French were forced to abandon Fort Duquesne, they burned it to the ground. When the British arrived, they rebuilt the fort and renamed it Fort _____.
- 10.The Battle at Ticonderoga is often referred to as the Battle of Fort _____.
- 11.The British victory at Lake George was their first important victory over the French. Two years later, however, the French reclaimed the area in the Battle of Fort _____.
- 12.Which of the following battles occurred first?
 - A. Fort Frontenac
 - B. Lake George
 - C. Fort Necessity
 - D. Louisbourg
- 13.As a result of their defeat, and the loss of Montreal, the French were forced to leave North America. They also agreed not to build any military establishments in _____.
- 14.After the loss of Quebec City, French forces attempt to reclaim it in 1760 at the Battle of _____.
- 15.At the Battle of Fort Carillon (Ticonderoga), over _____ British soldiers were killed or wounded.
- 16.Find the introductory description of The French and Indian War. In Europe, the French and Indian War was known as The _____ Years War.
- 17.The British hoped to take Fort Beausejour from the French to gain control of the isthmus of _____.
- 18.What famous American hero was forced to surrender Fort Necessity to French forces during the French and Indian War?
- 19.The English and French thought the Ohio River Valley was important to their _____ trades.
- 20.Click on "Return to Start". As a result of the French and Indian War, _____ was given the Louisiana Territory by the British in compensation for their loss of Florida.

21. The major French strongholds of Quebec City and _____ were both located on the St. Lawrence River.

22. After the Siege of Montreal, the French and English signed the Treaty of _____, ending the war.

23. The Battle of Quebec was fought on a flat area known as the Plains of _____.