

Directions for getting to the special “National History Day” section on GALILEO

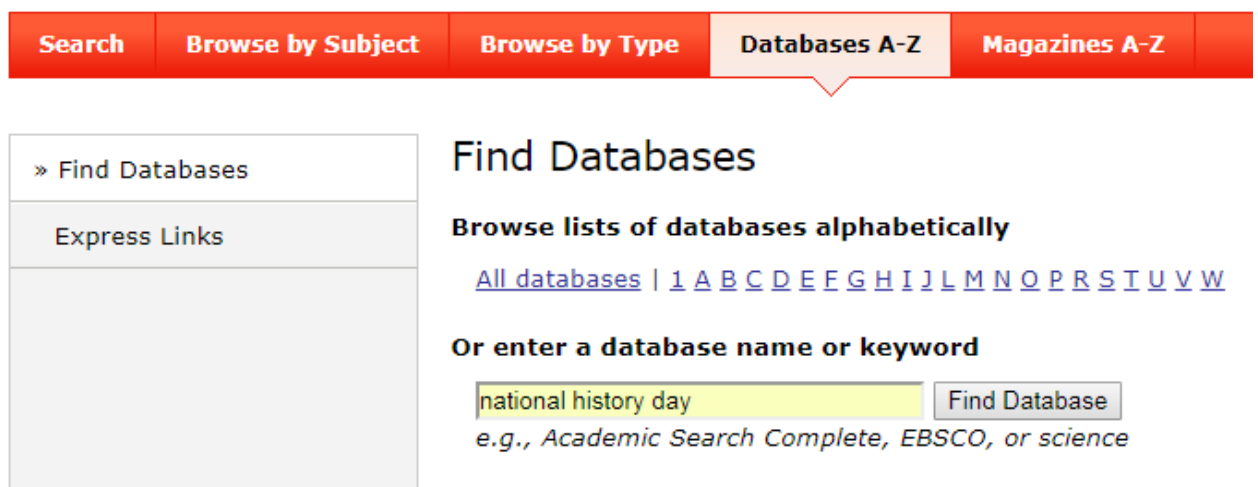

- 1) Make sure you are logged in and you’re in the high school section, if you are given the choice.

- 2) Click on “Databases A-Z”.

- 3) Search “National History Day”.

4) Click on the appropriate database.

Or enter a database name or keyword

National History Day

Find Database

e.g., Academic Search Complete, EBSCO, or science

Your search: National History Day ! id: zbds* ! id: zbft (2 matches)

1. Baldy Editorial Cartoons: The Clifford H. Baldowski Collection
Political cartoons, news, Georgia events more »

Provided by your institution

2. National History Day
Student contest for original research on historical topics. more »

5) Click on any of the links under History Resources in GALILEO and search within those databases. I would NOT suggest using the search at the top of this page as it seems to search all of GALILEO.

Georgia's Virtual Library
GALILEO
An Initiative of the University System of Georgia
National History Day

Find articles and images

History Resources in GALILEO

Find primary sources (documents, photographs, letters, maps and more)

Georgia Historic Newspaper
Learn More

Civil Rights Digital Library
Learn More

DLG Selected Resources
Learn More

Digital Public Library of America

Annals of American History

Civil War in the American South

About NHD

National History Day actively engages students in middle and high school in the historical process. Learn more at www.nhd.org

Other Resources

- National History Day Mentoring Program
- About GALILEO
- Contact Us