Here's what students and parents say they like about Greenwood Lakes:

" I like how the teachers and other adults try to make this school safe, clean, and the teachers explain what we're learning very well. "

7th Grade Student

" I like how much the teachers care about there students and how many sports there are. "

6th Grade Student

" I like that it is well taken care of. People are very kind, and welcome you if you are new. I am new to the school, and everyone was so very welcoming and kind. Everyone treated me as if I was their friend, and now I have many friends and best friends. I enjoy the sports like cheer. I would recommend this school. "

6th Grade Student

" The communication between the teachers and other administrators, whether it's an email or phone call. "

8th Grade Parent

" The teachers truly care about their students. Throughout my 2-1/2 years as a parent- I have not had any issues contacting and/or having conversations about my son with teachers or administration. They truly are about their students' achievement and academic excellence. "

8th Grade Parent

" I like that it has little to no violence. I like that it has dedicated teachers and the principal is very involved always keeping parents posted via emails. I like that the school does sweet things to make the teachers feel appreciated. "

6th Grade Parent

" The build of the school and amount of effort put on safety, plus friendly faces of teachers and friends. "

8th Grade Student

" My son is thriving. Getting good grades. "
