Greek Mythology Research Project

Directions: Everyone in the class has been assigned a different god, goddess, creature or human being from Greek Mythology. You must research them and create a presentation based upon the mythological character that you have selected.

How you go about your project and create your presentation is up to you. Some examples of mediums you may use are:

- * Slide Show
- * Poster
- * Skit
- * Movie
- * Short Story
- * Scrapbook Page
- * Fakebook Page (<http://www.classtools.net/FB/home-page>)
- * Comic strip

No matter which medium you choose your presentation must be 3-5 minutes long and must demonstrate knowledge of the following:

1. If you have selected a god or goddess please indicate what they are the god or goddess of and what special powers they possess.

- or -

Your character might be considered a demigod or half -god. A lot of the Greek gods liked to have love affairs with human beings, which created superior human beings. If you have selected a character that is a demigod what is his/her special power?

- or -

If you have selected a creature or a human being you must find out the story behind them. Why are they important? What is unique about them?

2. Many characters in Greek mythology are related to one another or show up in various stories. Describe some of the relationships your character has. Who are his/her parents? Siblings? Friends? Enemies?
3. Give a brief summary of a myth associated with your character. What moral was learned from this story?
4. Does your character appear in or have an influence on modern life in any way?

This assignment is due on Nov. 30
