Mrs. Hauser

ABOUT ME: MRS. HAUSER

Hello all! I am Mrs. Chelsea Hauser and I am your student's AP Human Geography and/or US History teacher this year!

I am in my 7th year teaching, with experience in AP/IB courses and Dual Enrollment. I am so excited to be part of the Toro Herd!

I am very passionate about history, with a special interest in demography, so this year's course line-up is a dream! Aside from my love of social studies, you can probably find me paddleboarding on the intracoastal, hiking in some canyon, or running red-faced throughout Jacksonville.

In Bryce Canyon, one of my favorite places!

HOMEWORK

- Homework is assigned either as necessary pre-reading before a lesson, or to allow students to finish classwork before we move onto additional content in class.
- I do accept late homework.
- Homework is officially late when it is not submitted during class the day it is due.
- I accept late work to ensure that students have study material and are still engaging with pre-reading and important content.

GRADING

- All grading follows district protocol (30% formative, 70% summative).
- Additional grading information can be found in the course syllabus (students have a copy, or you can access it on Schoology).
- If you have any questions about summative retakes or late/absent work, please feel free to reach out!
