

Settled or Civilized People	Nomadic People
Build permanent houses, public buildings, streets	Use tents or temporary dwellings
Have specialized jobs involving skills and use of resources  Tools and infrastructure develop to support economic activity	Herding, hunting and gathering food, water, and resources from many sources  Portable tools and livestock
Travel to gather resources and return to fixed settlement  Trade with other settlements	Travel longer distances to find ideal conditions  Trade with settled people and other nomads
Individuals or rulers own pieces of land	Group control of a "territory"  People move freely within this area