Byzantine Empire Mini-project (Standard 4)

On a sheet of paper white copy paper, you will create a real estate advertisement that would encourage people to move to Constantinople (Byzantine Empire formerly known as the Eastern Empire) in the sixth century A.D. Your advertisement must include information about the city's geography, government, religion, and economic opportunities. The advertisement must also be neat and colorful.

- The words Constantinople or Byzantine Empire must be somewhere on the flyer
- Remember you can do the advertisement like a flyer or a pamphlet.
- Only headings can be printed from the computer and all else must be hand-written and drawn.
- Fill-up the entire sheet with advertisement and color (Not all black and white)!
- Bonus points will be given for the best drawings, advertisement ideas, color use, and creativity
