Per Pasco County School Board Policy- 2240 - CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES

The Board recognizes that a course of study or certain instructional materials may contain content and/or activities that some parents find objectionable. If after careful, personal review of the program lessons and/or materials, a parent indicates to the school that either the content or the activity conflicts with his religious beliefs or value system, the school will consider a written request for his child to be excused from a particular class for specified reasons. The student, however, will not be excused from participating in the course and will be provided alternate learning activities during times of such parent requested absences.

GRADING POLICIES

Final grades are based on the following scale:

A=100-90; B=89-80; C=79-70; D=69-60; F=59-0

Areas of Assessment

Students are formally assessed through tests (exams and quizzes) and projects, and informally assessed within the classroom setting through participation in discussion and class work. Students will document their growth through the use of technology, portfolios, journals, and personal goal setting. Final course grades are based upon the following categories of assessments:

- Quizzes and Exams
- Essays and Collaboration Projects
- Classwork and Homework

Late Work

- Homework: Late homework will NOT be accepted after one week from due date (or one week after student returns from excused absence or quarantine), and any late assignment will receive a zero. Homework is intended to preview new material in preparation for the next lesson or review material that was covered during that day's session. As such, it is to the student's benefit that all homework assignments be completed on time. Homework will always be checked at the beginning of the class period on the day it is due. If an assignment is not in class at that time, it is considered late. Students who do not have their homework in class will be asked to notify their parents of their failure to complete the work.
- Projects: Major projects such as research papers or culminating unit products may be turned during the current quarter, but will not be accepted or graded after the quarter (grade) is closed.

- Emergencies: Exceptions to late work policies may be made on a case-by-case basis in the event of an emergency. Parent phone call or email note is required for consideration.

Monitoring Student Progress

In addition to report cards issued at the end of the quarter, students will receive mid-term progress reports. Parents are highly encouraged to obtain a MyStudent login for access to their student's gradebook (<http://www.pasco.k12.fl.us/> (Links to an external site.)) to keep informed of student progress on a more regular basis, or monitor the Grades folder in each myLearning course.

Academic Integrity

In addition to good academic performance, students should exhibit honesty and integrity. If there is any question that academic honesty and integrity are not honored, students may be required to redo assignments. Proof of dishonesty, including plagiarism, will result in disciplinary action, and an intervention course on "Academic Integrity vs. Plagiarism" may be assigned in myLearning and monitored for completion by school administration.

ADDITIONAL POLICIES

Student Conduct

The 7th Grade behavior interventions are as follows:

1. Verbal reminder (maximum 3)
2. Parent contact and Detention
3. Parent contact and Discipline Referral

Dress Code

Dress Code Violations will result in student being sent to Office Staff to await appropriate clothes from home (or borrow donated clothes) and a note home to be signed by parents. Continued infractions will result in lunch detention and then discipline referral. Please refer to school website (<http://csrms.pasco.k12.fl.us/> (Links to an external site.)) or the StudentPlanner on MyLearning via MyPascoConnect (<http://www.pasco.k12.fl.us/> (Links to an external site.)) for details and pictures of appropriate vs. inappropriate school dress. Thank you for your cooperation.

Absences

It is to your child's benefit that he or she attends school daily! No amount of make-up work or note copying can compensate for the class discussion and peer activity that your child misses when absent. However, some absences are unavoidable. It is the student's responsibility to seek out missed work.

- Excused: If a child is absent from school the day a homework assignment or project is due and he or she was in class the day it was assigned, it is his or her responsibility to bring in the work the day he or she returns to school. Students will receive one day for every excused absence to make up class assignments and homework.
- Unexcused: Unexcused absences will not be allowed to make up class assignments or homework.

Tutoring

Tutoring availability is limited. If you are interested in tutoring, please contact Mrs. Herlocker (mherlock@pasco.k12.fl.us) to schedule a meeting and address your concerns. Students may also send an email via the myLearning Inbox within their course. ESE students may contact their ESE Support Facilitator or Co-Teacher of record for additional assistance.

Planner

CSRMS student planners are available online via MyLearning on MyPascoConnect (<http://www.pasco.k12.fl.us/> (Links to an external site.)). All class work and homework assignments are posted in each course's myLearning Modules, and on the classroom board and discussed during the class period. Every student is responsible for taking notes on assignments in his or her notebook (or digital planner) and knowing the due date for each assignment. Parents can keep informed of daily and upcoming assignments by viewing their child's notebook or on-line planner (myLearning).

Quarantine

If a student is quarantined how should the parent go about helping the student with academics (example: all documents will be housed in myLearning, this course is up to date regularly, etc)
