Independent Reading Project: One~Pager

You are going to create a "one-pager" in which you draw/represent major ideas from your independent reading book. The One-Pager should include the following:

➤ the title of the story
➤ the author of the story
➤ three important quotes from the story (with page numbers)
➤ a personal response to the story (at least four sentences) You may want to include here what you learned from reading the story and whether or not you would recommend it to someone else.
➤ at least three pictures of major people/things/events from the story
➤ at least one symbol from the story and what it represents
➤ at least three other items/pictures that represent literary elements from the story (foreshadowing/symbolism/irony/ figurative language, etc.)

On the back of the one pager, you should write a detailed paragraph explaining the theme of the novel. You should include at least three examples from the novel (with page numbers) to support your theme.

You can use markers, colored pencils, and any other items to make your one-pager stand out from the crowd. You can also make a computer generated one; this could be shared with me instead of printing out a hard copy.
Due: Wednesday, February 28, 2018
I have examples of one-pagers in class for you to look at.
