Notes from Mr. Hunter

Believe it or not, the 3rd Quarter is nearing an end. I encourage all students and parents to check Skyward and see their class status. It is not too late to make sure grades are where they need to be.

I want to thank our BACC, Young Women of Excellence and Young Men of Excellence for all of their hard work on making this an amazing Black History Month. They have done an amazing job and we are so proud of our students and sponsors. We look forward to our "Night at the Museum" productions this Friday during 4th and 6th period.

Students and parents, the end of the 3rd quarter means that testing season is about to begin. Please pay attention to this newsletter and your SCPS email over the next several week to know when and where you student will be testing.

Thank you for your support and GO GREYHOUNDS!

Michael Hunter, Principal
