Notes from Mr. Hunter

This week we are continuing to work towards making academic progress as we prepare for next week's Q1 Exams. The exam schedule is posted in this bulletin. Students, this is a good week to take stock as to where you are at in each of your classes. This is also a great time to check in with your teachers to get feedback on how you are progressing. For parents, this is a great time to check in on your student's class progress in Skyward. Links to access Skyward can be found in this newsletter under "General Quick Links."

This past week we cracked down on tardies and started to catch-up on consequences in the HERO system. This week we will begin to focus more on dress code. Be sure to be on class on time and wearing appropriate attire.

Let's make this a GREAT Greyhound-Week!

Michael Hunter, Principal
