

Marriage is a Private Affair Vocabulary Review

A. commiserate	B. cosmopolitan	C. deference	D. dissuasion
E. forsaken	F. homily	G. illegible	H. indomitable
I. perfunctorily	J. persevere	K. raspingly	L. remorse
M. theological	N. unavailing	O. voluble

- homily 1. Each time someone breaks a rule, we must endure a _____ about how irresponsible and immature we are.
- persevere 2. A winner will always _____ in the face of trials.
- illegible 3. Ancient documents are _____ because the ink has worn from the paper.
- dissuasion 4. A little _____ could have prevented this tragedy, if someone had tried to convince them to not text and drive.
- unavailing 5. Despite your _____ arguments, the test will still be taken today.
- raspingly 6. You could sense his frustration by the way he spoke so _____ to the child, rather than his normal friendly voice.
- remorse 7. Are you the least bit sorry for you what you did? Do you feel any _____?
- forsaken 8. Winning the game showed that our Ram-luck had not _____ us.
- theological 9. He always gives a _____ answer to any question asked, bringing it back to his religion.
- indomitable 10. The brood of hens was _____ as they fought to save their babies.
- deference 11. Students should treat their teachers with _____, though they seem to not know that such respect is a common courtesy.
- commiserate 12. The doctor went over to _____ with the family after the surgery's unexpected tragedy.
- cosmopolitan 13. When dining with the president of the company, you must be more _____, not using the normal behavior you use around your friends at the farm.
- voluble 14. He is _____ even when he knows no one in his class.
- perfunctorily 15. He threw the bag _____ towards the bed, as though he didn't care where it landed.