2. Budget review: Mr. Laga showed the budget report to keep the committee up to date in expenditures and contributions.
3. Mr. Seifert, 8th grade guidance counselor, presented to the committee the 8th grade student transition. The blitz on Wednesday during PAW's went very well. Mr. Seifert commented on the event as updating and informing the student population as per the academies that the district has to offer. He affirmed attendance is a must at the January 9th event for academies at World Golf Village. He discussed the new schools opening and mentioned the positives and negatives that our population may incur when they open. The New High School academy will promote Emerging Technologies; Health Care and Medical care; and Construction courses.
4. Jay Willets: Covered the goals achieved at the school. Spoke of a future request to begin replacing the 'House' computers and how he plans to fund the process. The proposal is to replace 15 computers costing $10,000.00, using $3993.00 from SAC funds and the balance from the ICT program. The motion to accept (Laga) and seconded by others (Robin Lightsey, Christie Ball).

Goals of the School:

- a. Academic-Willets spoke of testing and mid-terms at the Bay
- b. Culture- Willets spoke of the 'Culture Club' and the positive affect it is having on the kids and the staff. Echo dots and Penny Boards are hot items in the store and we are celebrating the success.

- c. Student Staff Support: Willets spoke of the WEB program and the results of the parking lot rental cashing in over $2000 dollars to the Rec Room passed last SAC meeting.

There are 1360 enrolled at PBMS. New schedules are issued digitally and paper schedule can be given if asked for. Willets spoke of Reverb churches “Gift” baskets for low-income families @ PBMS. Mr. Willets reminded our committee about all of the field trips and special events for the students in the upcoming year.

5. Comments were made about the environment of the school; making contributions and the importance of contributing to the SAC process.
6. The Meeting was adjourned @3:23.
