

What was Georgia's role in the modern Civil Rights Movement? (SS8H11a &b)

Event/Group	Date	Description	Impact on Georgia/U.S.
End of the white primary UGA - pg. 247 & 308		A practice started in _____ that did not _____ to vote in _____.	Since most white Georgians were democrats, this allowed democrats to maintain control of state politics
Brown vs. Board of Education Cloudy p. 436 - 437		Court case that started in _____ when _____ tried to enroll in an all-white school in _____. The _____ helped her father sue the Topeka Board of education. Finally, the _____ ruled that _____ schools were _____.	In Georgia, most school systems _____. The General Assembly voted to _____ to systems that did _____.
Adoption of the 1956 state flag UGA - pgs. 357 - 358		The General Assembly adopted a flag with the _____, claiming it was in preparation of the _____ of the _____. However, the adoption came _____ of the Brown decision.	Gave Georgia a negative image throughout the country until the late 1980s. Voters adopted the current flag in 2004
Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee		An organization of students that worked with the SCLC (_____) to help end segregation. They organized _____ at department store	SNCC was headquartered in _____ Got students involved in the _____ movement

UGA - 344		_____.
Sibley Commission		A _____ commission set up to study the issue of _____. Held public _____ and recommended local school _____ decide on their own _____.	Many _____ opened
Albany Movement	1961	Began in _____ when activists sat in a _____ waiting room at the Albany _____. Many were _____. _____ came to Albany during the protests.	National coverage by the news of the arrests _____ committee was formed to study concerns of African-Americans. Albany was not _____ but learned strategies for future _____ activities
March on Washington		_____ citizens of all races marched on the capital to demonstrate support of the _____ movement. MLK delivered his famous "I _____" speech.	National civil rights legislation was passed the next year.
Civil Rights Act		Prohibited racial discrimination in _____, _____, labor unions, and public facilities. Also allowed government to withhold _____ from school systems that refused to _____	This law gave new economic opportunities to blacks they had never had before.

