

The background of the slide features a large, semi-transparent blue seal of the Paulding County School District. The seal is circular with a compass rose in the center. The words "PAULDING COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT" are written in a circular path around the compass rose. At the bottom of the seal, a banner reads "For Success Today and Tomorrow" and "Est. 1872".

A photograph of marching band drum majors. They are wearing white uniforms with dark sleeves and red and white striped cuffs. They are holding large brass instruments, likely tubas or euphoniums, and are wearing hats with red plumes. The background is blurred, showing a crowd of spectators.
