

Beginning of the Year Math Interview and Parent Survey

Part I: Math Interview: I, (your name) _____ interviewed my _____ and their name is _____ on (date): _____ at (time): _____ which took place at (location) _____ of interview.

1. What is your occupation? _____
2. On a scale from 1 - 10 how often do you use math skills in your career? _____
3. Give an example of how you use math in your career. _____

4. On a scale from 1 - 10 how often do you use your math skills outside of your career? _____
5. Please give an example of how you use math outside your career . _____

6. When you do not know how to solve a math problem in your life, what resources do you go to for help? _____
7. When you were in school, what math topics were your favorite? _____
8. Do you have any math advice for me as a student? _____

Part II: Now answer these questions with one or both of your parents/guardians. (No worries if you interviewed your parent/guardian above, but make sure to discuss these questions with your parent/guardian)

1. When and where should I be doing my homework? _____
2. How long should I spend on homework? _____
3. If I need help in math, who can I go to for help? _____
4. What math goal do you have for me this year?

5. If I need extra help from your teacher with math what time works best for our family? (circle one) before schoolafter schoolduring study hall

6. Do you have a computer at home or some device to access the internet at home? _____
7. Thank your participant for their time and honest feedback.
8. Be ready to turn this paper into your teacher for homework credit.