

Chapter section 1 Review

Name: _____

Directions: Using your class notes and textbook (Chapter 8), answer the questions below. Copying or sharing answers will result in a zero for both parties involved.

1. What is the President's official military title? _____
2. The President is the main spokesperson for the United States and the architect of foreign policy and relations with other countries. The President has the power to make a treaty or an executive agreement with a foreign country, and thus is given the title of Chief _____
3. The President recommends bills for Congress to pass. He may sign a bill to make it a law or veto or reject a bill passed by Congress. The President is thus given the title of Chief _____
4. The President is the recognized leader of the United States and the head of our government. He is thus given the title of Chief _____
5. Identify two Presidential roles or titles that are not mentioned in the US Constitution:
_____ and _____
6. What are the three constitutional qualifications to become President?
 - A. _____
 - B. _____
 - C. _____
7. Most modern Presidents either served as a state _____ (executive) or in the US _____ (legislative) before becoming President.
8. The powers and duties of the President can be found in Article _____ of the US Constitution.
9. The youngest President ever elected was: _____
10. The oldest President ever elected was: _____
11. One term for the President lasts _____ years and according to the 22nd Amendment the President can only serve _____ terms.
12. Before the passage of the 22nd Amendment in 1951, which President was elected to 4 terms?

13. Today, the President is paid an annual salary of $ _____ per year.
14. Describe two roles or duties assigned to the Vice President by the Constitution:

