

Pursuing Your Passion in College

SO YOUR CHILD WANTS TO PURSUE FINE ARTS IN COLLEGE?

New Trier families are invited to attend the NTFAA's PURSUING YOUR PASSION IN COLLEGE event to learn how students can pursue the arts in college on Tuesday, March 8, at 7:00 p.m. (via Zoom).

Robert Zigmund of the New Trier Post-High School Counseling department will talk about pursuing arts in college as a major, minor or extracurricular activity, and then a panel of parents of performing and visual arts students will be available to answer questions and lead break out rooms by discipline.

Breakouts will include: Art; Dance; Vocal Music; Instrumental Music; Musical Theatre, Acting, Theatre and Improv; Debate; and Multimedia and Film. (You will be able to move from room to room.) We also hope to have recent NT grads who are currently studying the arts in college join the meeting to share their experiences.

This program hosted by the NTFAA is designed for parents and students to give insight into a variety of options in the arts and how to explore them in college. For the Zoom link, please look for the February or March eNews email newsletter sent to all NT families by the NTPA. If you would like to submit questions for the panelists in advance, or if you have any questions about the event, please contact NTFAApresident@gmail.com
