

Rough Draft Check: Are you going in the right direction with your project? If you can't answer most of these questions, you probably haven't completed enough research.

As part of your project preparation, write a minimum of 250 words about the broken barrier that you are researching. This rough draft paper should be identifying at least some of the following items:

___ Time period of the barrier that was broken

___ Where it took place

___ What led to it happening The specifics related to its connection to the theme of Breaking Barriers.

___ What was the world or this specific area like before the conflict arose?

___ How did the broken barrier have a specific impact on people?

___ Why did the "broken barrier" take place?

___ How did people on both sides of the issue view the "broken barrier"?

___ How do people in general view this issue today?

___ What is still left to accomplish in regards to the initial barrier ?

___ Where do we go from here in regards to the future?

Your final product should really focus on hitting the majority of the items on this list