United States Marine Corps: NROTC Scholarship	NROTC Scholarship range from $150,000 to $200,000 for a total of 4 years. You may start the process of applying during the second semester of your junior year of high school. Students may apply for only one of the three scholarship program options-Navy, Nurse or Marine Corps. Before the application can be finalized and forwarded for selection consideration, you must ensure that a copy of your complete transcript, including your entire junior year, is forwarded to your recruiter.	For more information about educational and career opportunities with the United States Marine Corps, contact SSgt Michael Atkins at (work) 770-536-9661 (cell) 678-229-7303 or via email at michael.atkins@marines.usmc.mil

Students with 30 or more semester hours or 45 or more quarter hours of college credit upon application or students already enrolled in NROTC College Program are not eligible for four-year NROTC Scholarships; these students should see professors of Naval Science at a host university's NROTC unit to discuss other scholarship opportunities.

MARINE CORPS

General eligibility requirements for the program are as follows:

- Be a U. S. citizen.
- Be 17 years of age by September 1st of the year starting college and less than 23 years of age on June 30th of that year. Applicants must not have reached their 27th birthday by June 30th of the year in which college graduation and commissioning are anticipated. Applicants who have prior active duty military service may be eligible for age adjustments for the amount of time equal to their prior service, on a month-for-month basis, for a maximum of 36 months, provided they do not reach their 30th birthday by June 30th of the year in which graduation and commissioning are anticipated.
- Be a high school graduate or possess an equivalency certificate (GED) by August 1st of the same year of anticipated entrance into the four-year NROTC Scholarship Program.
- Be physically qualified by Marine Corps standards. Applicants will be required to complete a physical fitness test (PFT) consisting of a three-mile run for time, sit-ups, and dead-hang pull-ups for males/flexed armed-hang for females per Marine Corps Physical Fitness Program.
- Have no moral obligations or personal convictions that will prevent conscientious bearing of arms, and supporting and defending the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign, or domestic.
- Have no criminal record of military or civilian offenses.

University of North Georgia: Georgia Military Scholarships (GMS)	This scholarship is worth $70,000 over four years. The State of Georgia offers forty-two scholarships per year to Georgia high school seniors who attend the University of North Georgia and commission as officers in the Georgia Army National Guard after graduating with bachelors degrees. The scholarship pays for your room, meals, tuition, books, uniforms, and fees. In addition, you receive National Guard weekend drill pay, GI Bill, pay for attending Army basic and advanced training, and Army ROTC contract pay (starting beginning of sophomore year). You may also be eligible for an enlistment bonus and monthly GI Bill kicker.	March 1, 2015

Effective 15 August 2005, GMS Scholarship recipients are non-deployable as long as they are enrolled and remain in good standing with the University of North Georgia and the Georgia Army National Guard.

Requirements:

1. Be a resident of Georgia.
2. Receive a nomination from a state assemblyman.
3. Meet the academic requirements for, and gain regular admission, to UNG.
4. Meet Army National Guard medical and physical standards.
5. Agree to serve as an enlisted member in the Georgia Army National Guard while a Cadet at UNG.
6. Agree to accept a commission upon graduation from UNG and serve four years as a commissioned officer in the Georgia Army National Guard.

<http://ung.edu/military-college-admissions/costs-financial-aid/scholarships-and-grants/georgia-military-scholarship.php>

The GMS is a $70,000 full-ride scholarship and is only available at UNG. It requires Cadets to commission as second lieutenants in the Georgia Army National Guard after finishing college. It pays for room, meals, tuition, fees, uniforms and books. In addition to scholarship benefits, recipients make about $40,000 in pay and benefits during their four years in college. After commissioning, Guard lieutenants start at about $7,500 per year for training one weekend per month and two weeks of annual training.

Students do not have to enlist in the Guard prior to applying for the scholarship. However, they must enlist prior to 1 August 2015.

To qualify, students must be legal residents of Georgia (not necessarily US citizens); have a 3.0 cumulative GPA; have minimum SAT scores of 440 math and 480 critical reading (or

	ACT of 18 math and 20 English); be recommended by a Georgia State Assemblyman; meet the enlistment requirements for the Guard; be an enlisted soldier in the Guard while a Cadet in the Corps of Cadets at UNG. This scholarship IS NOT FOR YOUR SENIORS who want to be regular Army officers. Instead, if they want to stay in Georgia after graduating from college, serve as commissioned officers, pursue careers in the public, private, or corporate sectors in Georgia, or continue with post-graduate education, the GMS is for them!
