

GREAT CHRISTMAS GIFT

Almost 200 stories about what it was like to attend one of the 36 Lewis County country schools were received from former teachers and students. In addition to the stories, the book includes photos of the school buildings, students, and teachers, as well as lists of all known students and teachers. The introduction contains 30 pages of general information about country schools of that era. There is also a map showing the location of these schools. The book is over 600 pages and includes a surname index. It has a soft cover, is spiral bound, and is also available on a computer CD.

$25.00 plus $6.00 S/H per book, $8.00 S/H for two books.

CD $12.00 each plus $3.00 S/H

Order from

Ilo-Vollmer Historical Society

Box 61

Craigmont, Idaho 83523

emleachman@q.com 208-924-5498