

Spanish 2B Exam Review

Your exam has two parts: Speaking and Writing.

Listed below are possible exam questions.

It is my expectation that you create these paragraphs on your own using your notes and the information from the course. The use of Yahoo! Answers or other help sites is considered plagiarism and you will receive a zero for the final.

Speaking – NO GOOGLE TRANSLATE! NO YAHOO! ANSWERS!!!!!!!

Describe how you think your future spouse will be like. What physical and personality characteristics will he/she have? Where do you think you'll meet him/her? Be sure you use at least 5-6 complete Spanish sentences in your response.

You will need to use the future tense in this paragraph. Be creative.

The news always talks about different kinds of social issues such as crime, poverty, corruption, pollution, tragedies, etc. In your own words, retell a recent event that you heard on the news. Describe what happened and how the story ended. Be sure you use at least 5-6 complete Spanish sentences in your response.

You will be using the present tense, preterite, and imperfect tenses in this paragraph. Be sure to add lots of details.

Writing - NO GOOGLE TRANSLATE! NO YAHOO! ANSWERS!!!!!!!

Your boyfriend/girlfriend wants to buy you something for your birthday. What do you want him/her to buy you? What do you not want him/her to buy you? Give reasons to support your choices. Be sure you use at least 5-6 complete Spanish sentences in your response.

You will be using conditional phrases like Me gustaría, Yo querría in this paragraph. Be specific and descriptive.

Poverty is a social problem that affects every nation in the world. What are your suggestions and ideas as to how to help people overcome poverty? Be sure you use at least 5-8 complete Spanish sentences in your response.

You will could use all tenses in this paragraph – present, preterite, imperfect, future, and conditional. La pobreza = poverty. Be specific in how to help.