

Spanish I Exam Review 2017

The exam consists of four (4) sections. Section 1 is 100 true-false and multiple-choice. Section 2 is a listening section. Section 3 is a reading section. Section 4 is a writing section. You will complete short answer questions (silla caliente) and essays in the writing section.

The following objectives from this semester will be covered on the exam. While most of the exam covers second semester, you will have to remember important concepts such as –AR verbs, subject pronouns and other basic vocabulary from first semester.

Chapter 2B - Tu sala de clases

- To talk about the classroom
- To talk about where objects are located
- To use the verb estar
- To use the plurals of nouns and adjectives

Chapter 3A - ¿Desayuno o almuerzo?

- To talk about food and beverages for breakfast and lunch
- To talk about likes and dislikes
- To express how often is done
- To use the present tense of –er and –ir verbs
- Me gustan me encantan

Chapter 3B – Para mantener la salud

- To talk about food and beverage for dinner

- To describe how people or things are like
- To discuss health and exercise choices
- The plurals of adjectives
- Food groups and food on the Food Guide Pyramid
- Activities to maintain good health
- To talk about healthy or unhealthy life style

Chapter 4A – ¿Adónde vas?

- To talk about locations in your community
- To discuss leisure activities
- To talk about where you go and with whom
- How to ask questions
- The verb IR

Chapter 4B – ¿Quieres ir conmigo?

- To talk about activities outside of school
- Extend, accept, or decline invitations
- To tell when an event happens
- Verb Jugar
- Ir + a + infinitive
- To say what are you going to do