

Sexually Transmitted Diseases Test

VOCABULARY: Choose the correct term for each definition

Genital Herpes	HPV	Gonorrhea	Genital Warts	HIV
Syphilis	Abstinence	Sterility	AIDS	Infertile
Sexually Transmitted Disease		Chlamydia	Pubic Lice

1. An STD that starts as a chancre sore and attacks many parts of the body
2. The most common bacterial STD that if left untreated can cause pelvic inflammatory disease
3. The conscious decision to avoid harmful behaviors, including sexual activities before marriage and the use of tobacco, alcohol, and other drugs
4. A condition in which a person is unable to reproduce
5. Reddish warts with cauliflowerlike tops that appear on the genitals
6. Infectious disease spread from person to person through sexual contact
7. The inability of a woman to become pregnant
8. Lice in the pubic region...referred to as CRABS
9. Blisterlike sores in the genital area
10. Can be transmitted via skin to skin contact...some strands of this disease can cause cervical cancer
11. An STD characterized by an unpleasant “drip” or discharge...could affect the vision of a newborn baby if it comes in contact with infection during birth
12. A viral STD that attacks a person’s immune system
13. The disease HIV turns into in its final stages

BACTERIAL OR VIRAL?

- | | |
|----------------------|-----------------|
| _____ Chlamydia | _____ HIV |
| _____ AIDS | _____ Gonorrhea |
| _____ Genital Warts | _____ Syphilis |
| _____ Genital Herpes | |

MULTIPLE CHOICE:

- _____ is the most common bacterial STD and estimated that more than 4 million new cases a year in the United States are reported.
A. Genital Warts B. Syphilis
C. AIDS D. Chlamydia
- There are four stages of _____.
A. Syphilis B. Gonorrhea
C. Chlamydia D. HPV
- When a person has _____, the symptoms usually occur between three days and three weeks after sexual contact.
A. HPV B. Genital Herpes
C. Gonorrhea D. Chlamydia
- Can lead to cervical cancer in women, which kills over 5,000 women in the United States.
A. Genital Herpes B. HPV
C. HIV D. Syphilis
- _____ is the leading cause of death in the 25 to 44 old age group.
A. Genital Warts B. AIDS
C. Syphilis D. HPV
- When left untreated _____ can affect the heart, skin, spinal cord, and brain, which can lead to blindness, mental illness, tumors, strokes and even death.
A. Gonorrhea B. Syphilis
C. Genital Herpes D. Genital Warts

- SHORT ANSWER: Answer each question in detail and briefly using some important factors to back your answer

- CONTRACTING HIV: High Risk, Some Risk, No Risk: (Choose HR, SR, or NR)

- _____ 1. Anal sex without a condom
- _____ 2. Hugging
- _____ 3. A blood transfusion in America
- _____ 4. Donating blood

- _____ 5. Sex with a prostitute
- _____ 6. Unprotected sex if you already have an STD
- _____ 7. Mutual Masturbation
- _____ 8. Sex with a re-used condom
- _____ 9. Toilet Seat
- _____ 10. Mosquito bite

DISCUSSION:

1. Discuss why setting limits (boundaries) for yourself are vital to a healthy life
2. Discuss at least 3 boundaries you can set for yourself in the following areas to ensure your health will not be put at risk....
 - Exercise, eating right, drinking and drugs, sexual activity, violence
 - (3 boundaries or guidelines for each)