"I Dissent"
Book Review by Kylie

"I Dissent" is the story about Ruth Bader Ginsburg. Ruth was born on March 15, 1933. In that time boys got to grow up and get a good job and girls would go and find husbands. Ruth's mother told Ruth to read lots of books. So she did and she read about Nancy Drew, Amelia Earhart, and Athena goddess of Greek myths and they taught her that girls could do big things. After she graduated she went to college. In college she met Martin Ginsburg. They liked each other and then they got married. And they went to law school together. And Ruth was 1 of 9 women and there were 500 men. After law school she became a professor and a lawyer. And then she became a Supreme Court Justice.

I think the most important thing about Ruth is that she always disagreed with things that were wrong.

I Dissent

Book Review by Keikilani

Do you want to read about a woman who changed history? You should read "I Dissent" the story about Ruth Bader Ginsburg. Ruth Bader Ginsburg changed history by disagreeing that things should be fair.

She was born on 1933. She had a working class family. Ruth Bader Ginsburg stood up to many challenges. In 1980, Ruth Bader Ginsburg became a U.S. Court of Appeals Judge. Ruth is the second female Justice. In 1993 she was chosen as a U.S. Supreme Court Justice.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg

By Raymond Lopez

My class read "I Dissent" about Ruth Bader Ginsburg and I think Ruth Bader Ginsburg is like my friend Tehani. Tehani is smart like Ruth Bader Ginsburg and she is smart brave strong and honest like Ruth Bader Ginsburg. Tehani is smart in class. She is like Ruth Bader because Ruth Bader Ginsburg was a out standing kid in the school. Tehani is like that too.

Tehani is brave because when people are mean to her she will still be ok. When Ruth Bader seen signs that were mean she is kind of sad but she is brave to try to fix it.

Tehani is honest because when Tehani brakes something she is like "I broke it". Ruth Bader is honest too because she said that girls can do anything that boys can do and she proves it when she does anything boys do, and her husband does too.

This is why I think that Tehani and Ruth Bader Ginsburg are the same should be best friends ever until the end, because they are very alike.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg
By Kailee Barawis Bryan

I read "I Dissent" By Debbie Levy. It made me think Ruth Bader Ginsburg and my mom would be good friends. My mom is strong and smart because my mom stands up for herself. So is Ruth Bader Ginsburg because president Bill Clinton appointed her to be a judge. Ruth is fair because she argued in court that women should be treated equally. And my mom is fair with food she gives us equally amounts. Ruth Bader Ginsburg is confident when she was nervous before the supreme court she thought of her students and argued well. My Mom is confident because she tries new jobs. That's why I think they should be friends.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg

By: Tehani Enos

Hi I'm going to tell you all about Ruth Bader Ginsburg and how she changed her country to make it equal between girls and boys. Ruth Bader Ginsburg became a Supreme Court Judge and the first woman to become a Judge.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg changed her country with her confidence to make it equal between girls and boys to get equal kindness and money.

Before, Ruth Bader Ginsburg was a Supreme Court judge, she had to be a lawyer so she could become a Supreme Court Judge. This is significant because girls and boys were not treated the same.

Then, when she first tried to be a lawyer, people that owned the company said that "Ruth Bader Ginsburg you can't be a lawyer because you are a woman" (I dissent). Also women were expected to be domestic because boys had to work in jobs and women had to stay home and take care of the children.

Lastly, Ruth Bader Ginsburg made a change in her country and proved that her statement was right that girls and boys can be equal. She stood up for herself even when the judges had different opinions.

In conclusion, would you do the same thing if you were like Ruth Bader Ginsburg or if you were a supreme court Judge? What Ruth Bader Ginsburg means to me is she changed men and women to be more equal.

RUTH BADER GINSBURG

BY: Taleme Kanuha

Do you know who Ruth Bader Ginsburg is? Because if you don't this is for you! When Ruth was a little girl she was treated differently. She thought it wasn't fair to women that men only got to live their dreams and women had to find husbands. However, Ruth became a lawyer, even though she was a woman. Ruth made things right by saying men should be able to cook and write and women should be able to work and also live their dreams.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg had a hard time in school: "In School Ruth Bader Ginsburg was left-handed but she was forced to write with her right hand"(I dissent). That didn't stop her at all, she went on writing with her left hand. Then they found out that Ruth had nice handwriting with her left hand. This shows that she was not afraid of the future, and she knew she was going to live her way. She thought that men and women should not be treated differently. When Ruth was a grown woman she became a supreme court justice and still today she is fixing problems.

At baking class Ruth was not the kind of person who loves to cook and bake. You could even say she was bad at it. " Ruth had a problem with cooking class. It was her least favorite class. but Ruth kept living her dream She didn't cook, instead she went to Columbia Law school.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg's mom died on the day of her graduation, she didn't go. she went to Columbia Law School and there were only nine women and five-hundred men, this was not the sort of thing you would see now days but when Ruth was growing up this was normal. This sort of thing was normal because when Ruth was young her town went about the law that women were supposed to find husbands and stay home and cook and men can live there dream. So that's why there was five-hundred men and only nine women.

That's why Ruth is important, now you no all the hard things she went through and still she never gave up.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg

By Uluaki Tatafu

Have you ever wonder who was Ruth Bader Ginsburg, She became a Supreme Court judge. She worked really hard to make equal rights for men and women. She is jewish and was not treated fairly. First she worked and did well in school. Then, she went to law school and became a lawyer. Finally she graduated first in her class in 1959 even with her top grades she was treated unfairly while looking for work.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg is a amazing person that always makes fair things happen between other people who couldn't go into restaurants and other places. She helped the African Americans. She helped them because she was a jew and was also treated unfairly

Ruth Bader Ginsburg went to Columbia law school and then she became a lawyer and then she worked as a supreme court judge. It was important because she faced so many things like when she had to write with right but write with left. Ruth Bader Ginsburg graduated first in her in 1959 even with her top grades

Ruth Bader Ginsburg helped other people and also made equal rights for a lot of other people and she worked that hard she became a lawyer and then became a supreme court judge and she had to do caces. Ruth Bader Ginsburg is like oufa of equal rights.

Conclusion, Like my sister when she wanted to go work with me and my dad but he said no because she is a girl so she said that it doesn't matter even if I'm a girl can I please go to work and earn some money PLEASE and then my dad her go.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg

By: Camillegrace O. Kupihe

Ruth Bader Ginsburg is one of many other people who fought for equal rights. When Ruth Bader Ginsburg was a little girl she was treated different and was expected to find a husband when she grew older. But when she grew older, she decided to make things right when she was a lawyer and a Supreme Court Justice. Ruth Bader Ginsburg is different because she is a woman not a man in the Supreme court. This is important because women weren't treated fairly in America and other Countries but now in America woman is treated fair. But in other countries it is still going on though. Ruth Bader Ginsburg made things right by fighting for equal rights for men to women. Let me tell you how Ruth Bader Ginsburg fought for equal rights.

Early Life

Ruth was born on March 15, 1933 in New York. When she grew a little bit older she went to Columbia law school "Even with her top grades she was treated unfairly while looking for work" (Supreme Court Justices Ruth Bader Ginsburg, pg 2) They connect because she was treated unfairly because she was a girl.

Schooling

In 1954 Ruth Graduated College and then after she had went to Harvard law school, "She has fought for equal rights and fair treatment for woman" (Supreme Court Justices Ruth Bader Ginsburg, pg 1). They are connected because she made a difference for equal rights because of the way that woman was treated. Ruth took her education in to place for her plans to work.

Lawyer

In the 1970s Ruth worked as a lawyer. Fighting for equal rights, "She argued with six famous cases before the Supreme court. The cases were about fair treatment for women." (Supreme Court Justices: Ruth Bader Ginsburg, pg 2) They are connected because she is fighting for the rights of men and women. She is very brave like she is going up in battle for in war. But it is kinda like a war for equal rights between men and women though.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg is important because she has made equal rights between men and women by doing a speech, using her words and not her fist. So if you are a girl or boy. Woman or man. Don't think who's better than who but just remember Ruth Bader Ginsburg because she made the two equal, so everyone is equal in many ways.

Ruth Knows The Truth!

By Colleen Clarke

Do you know about Ruth Bader Ginsburg? She is a woman who changed American history forever. Let me tell you about her. She saw prejudice signs, faced law school with nine women like her, and became a Supreme Court judge.

The Sign

One day when Ruth Bader was driving in a hotel, she saw a sign that said "NO JEWS ALLOWED!" and Ruth Bader was Jewish and Ruth Bader DID NOT like that sign. (I dissent)

Image: Richard

When Ruth Bader was older, she went to college then she went to Columbia law school. There were 9 women and 500 men. She finished top in her class. But despite the good grades, she did not get picked because she was a woman. (I dissent)

Supreme court

In 1993, Ruth Bader got elected into the Supreme Court. She was an activist for supporting equal rights in 1999. When she was in the Supreme Court, she made some major decisions like ObamaCare. She also wrote a book. (I dissent and Supreme Court Justice: Ruth Bader Ginsburg)

In the conclusion, Ruth Bader Ginsburg did things many women couldn't do to help equality and make the world happy. She will inspire others to think out of the box.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg
By Evelyn Montiel Rivero

Have you ever helped your community or you saw somebody did it? Ruth Bader Ginsburg was a lawyer and a judge. Ginsburg is important because she help her community and changed laws for rights for females.

Ruth bader Ginsburg fought for equal rights of females (pg.1, Supreme court justice). Ruth Bader Ginsburg "argued with "6 famous cases before the Supreme court"(pg.2, Supreme court justice). THis is important because she wanted women to be anything they want to be.

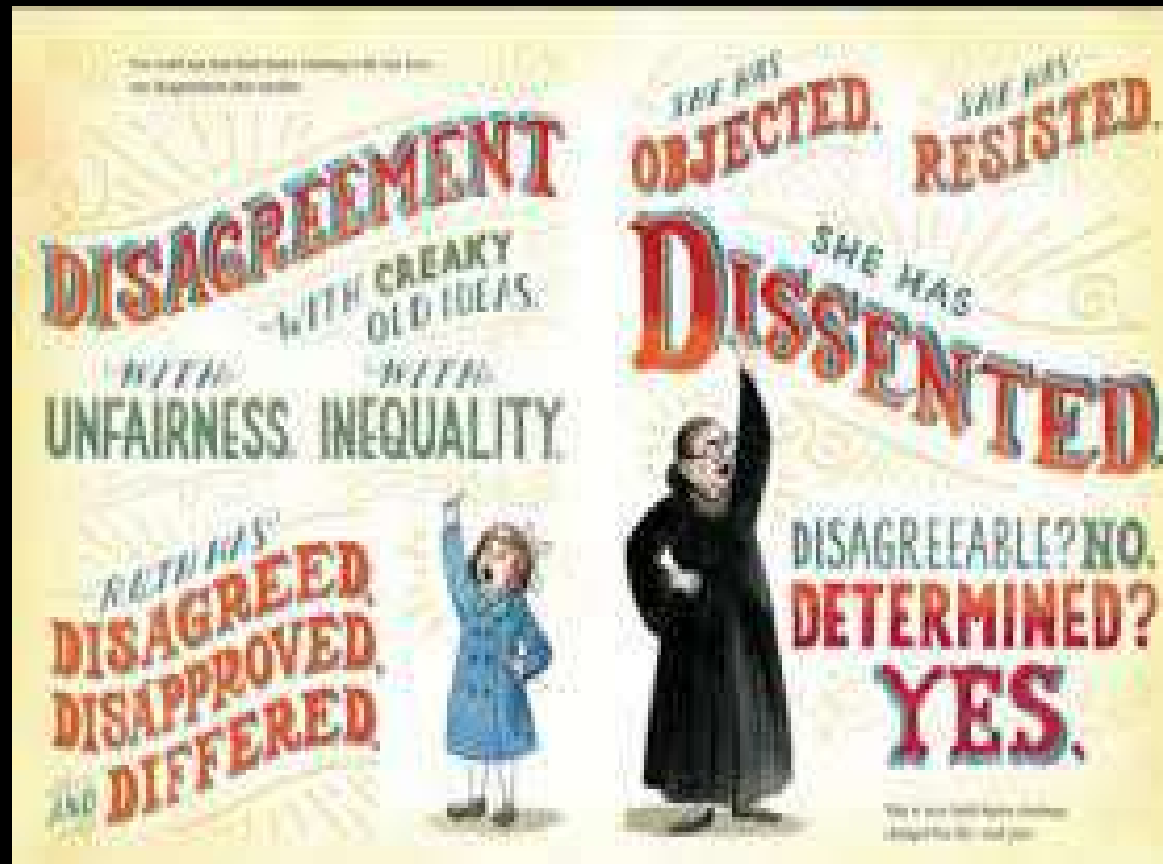

Ruth Bader Ginsburg helped boys and girls for equal rights, "Ginsburg favors fair treatment for women and workers... In 1999, she won an award for supporting equal rights"(pg.2, Supreme court justice).

In conclusion Ruth Bader Ginsburg proves that girls can do anything that boys can do. When I read this story I was shocked so I think you are too! It is important because she helped boys and girls with equal rights because this was not always the case. Well I did was give poor people food, Now just think what could I do to help my community? Some people didn't wanted to hire her, because Ruth was a women. That was my answer because I did that.

Name: N.C. Ed

Opinion Writing

I think we need to stop using the words "stupid" and "ugly". Reason 1: They are poor and they don't have that much money. The Island got bombed and it was a disaster. Reason 2: A lot of kids don't go to school. Some people don't have that much money. Reason 3: The reason why people call us stupid is cause many other machines bully them or there just try to act cool. I do not know many. This is why we should not use this word.

You're Such a loser."

Name: Mele S. Ken

Opinion Writing

I think we need to stop using the word "You're Such a loser". The reason is because people feels so sad. Someone called my friend a loser because she was doing her work slow. Calling people loser can make them feel like they don't belong in this world. Someone called me loser for no reason. I hate this word because it hurts people's feelings. Also it is not nice. I saw someone in my old school saying "loser" to a little kid the little kid cried. I dislike this word because it hurts people's feelings.
