

East Paulding High School Summer Reading 2018

All students are expected to complete assignments related to their courses' Summer Reading selections when they return in August. If students do not have English until the second semester, they have the option of completing and submitting the assignment early or completing it when their English course begins in January. Questions during the summer may be directed to Tommy Jolly, English Department Chair (tjolly@paulding.k12.ga.us).
