Perryman:

Learning Target (1.L.5): I can demonstrate understanding of word relationships and nuances in word meanings.

Task: Before your child begins their opinion writing on summer or winter, watch the instructional video on the alphabox strategy. The alphabox strategy helps make connections between concepts, facts, and vocabulary. Using the alphabox graphic organizer, identify words or phrases connected to summer and winter. Prompt your child to explain the meaning of each word. How does the word connect to the topic? How will the word convince the reader of your opinion? Share the final draft of your child's writing with their teacher and Ms. Perryman (tara.perryman@henry.k12.ga.us).

Strategy Questions

- What words fit in with this topic?
- What words would an expert use?
- How could you use the word in a sentence?
- Is there a fact that goes with that word?

Harvel / Eadie

Remediation: Optional Activity to Support Learning

Learning Target: I can blend sounds to read words.

This lesson is for Monday and Tuesday. You can read half the words on Monday. Then read the other half of words on Tuesday.

Instructional Video: <https://drive.google.com/file/d/1068ZraWjWccWDnPjFWsd30kiM75oo-LW/view>

Task: Watch the instructional video to view a mini lesson about blending sounds to read words with the short /o/ and long /o/ sound. Next, write the following words and sentences on a piece of paper or in your phonics journal. You may choose to make flashcards in place of writing the words on paper. Then read your words and sentences to an adult.

Short /o/ and Long /o/ Words:

rot rote pop pope jot jote rob robe tot tote

slop slope cop cope wok woke bon bone hop hope

Sentences:

Can you rote count to 20? The cat broke a bone. My mom woke up.

I can see the cop. My dad has a robe. I can hop on my pop!

Questions to answer to an adult: What sound did you hear first in the word? What vowel sound did you hear? Did the vowel make the short or long vowel sound? How do you know? What was the last sound in the word?

Parents, if your child struggles with writing, you may write the words and sentences on flashcards for your child to read. The goal of this lesson is for your child to blend sounds to read the words.
