

Performance Assessment Task

Unit 1: Citizenship in Action

Moving Up in Army JROTC – Rank and Structure [U1C1L3]

This performance assessment task gives you an opportunity to document your achievement of the lesson's competency:

Illustrate the rank and structure of the U.S. Army JROTC

Directions

---

For this performance assessment task, you will create and label an organizational chart or Brace Map to demonstrate your understanding of Cadet battalion structure. Additionally, you will write a summary explaining positions you wish to earn and why. For this assessment you will:

1. Draw an organizational chart or Brace Map that illustrates the structure of the Cadet battalion.
2. Include properly labeled positions in your illustration.
3. Include names of people currently serving in those positions in your illustration.
4. Determine what areas of the chart you would like to pursue as a personal goal for success in the JROTC Program. These might include command positions, company, platoon or squad roles (Battalion Executive Officer, Battalion Coordinating Staff Officers, Battalion Special Staff Officer, Battalion Personal Staff Officer).
5. Write a summary that explains the positions you wish to earn and why, and explain how these positions will help you meet your own goals for success.
6. Ensure your summary is neatly written or word-processed and accompanies your illustration.
7. Use the attached scoring guide criteria for what you need to do to complete this task.
8. Submit your completed performance assessment task and scoring guide to your instructor for evaluation and a grade.

RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended that you add this performance assessment task to your Cadet Portfolio.
