

Name:

Period:

Date:

SS8H2 The student will analyze the colonial period of Georgia's history. (pgs. 114-130)

{a. Explain the importance of James Oglethorpe, the Charter of 1732, reasons for settlement (charity, economics, and defense), Tomochichi, Mary Musgrove, and the city of Savannah.}

1. _____ was a very influential man in Great Britain that was always looking for ways to help others. In 1722 he became a member of _____, England's Legislative Branch of Government. During this time England had a major issue. What was the issue that led to people being placed in prisons?
2. Oglethorpe was personally affected by these types of prisons as one of his dear friends _____ died due to _____.
3. To solve this problem Oglethorpe and 20 others that were called the _____ tried to persuade the King of England to create a new colony for the following reasons...(for the following provide an explanation for the reason)

"Dear King _____, we think that a new British colony should be made in the "New World" for four reasons."

1. Poor=
2. Protestants=
3. Production=(provide examples of products and why did the English want them)
4. Protection=

"These sound like good enough reasons to me. Here, take this. This is the _____ which will serve as the official document granting you and your friends permission to establish a new colony."

The Trustee's Georgia: The Charter of 1732 set very strict ground rules for the colonists of Georgia.

1. According to this charter how much land belonged to the colonists? (AKA what were the boundaries of Georgia?)

2. The charter limited the people who could colonize Georgia. Name three groups of people and explain why they were not allowed to colonize Georgia:

a.

b.

c.

Name one item that was not permitted in Georgia during this time period:

3. What kind of limitations did the Charter have on the Trustees?

List three of the five expectations the Trustees had for these colonists?

a.

b.

c.

When Oglethorpe first arrived in Georgia he met _____ the chief of the Creek Native Americans living in the area. They were able to communicate through their interpreter _____.

How did this Native American Chief impact the Colony of Georgia?

How did this interpreter effect the relationship between these two men?

How did James Oglethorpe treat the Yamacraw tribe? How did they live a symbiotic relationship?

Read the description of Savannah and look at the picture of the Early Establishment of this city.(p.121) What was the Trustee's vision for this city. (AKA Remember they are attempting to make a Utopia. In what ways are they preparing for a perfect city where all are equal?)

Where was this city located? Why did they choose this area?

List three of the Responsibilities of these early settlers?

- a.
- b.
- c.

{b. Evaluate the Trustee Period of Georgia's colonial history, emphasizing the role of the Salzburgers, Highland Scots, malcontents, and the Spanish threat from Florida.}

These are the Salzburgers. Where are they from?

Why were they forced out of that country?

What did they do while in Georgia?

These are the malcontents. They are colonists of Georgia. They are not happy with the way the colony is being run by the Trustees. List three reasons for why they do not like Georgia's rule:

- a.
- b.
- c.

These are the Highland Scots. Where did they come from?

What Battle did they help Oglethorpe win?

The Salzburgers and the Highland Scots both oppose _____.

What event started this war?

What did Oglethorpe do in Response?

What happened at the battle of Bloody Marsh?

What event started this war?

