

Language Arts Vocabulary Terms
Test Apr. 16th

Solitary- all alone

Scent- an odor that is generally good

Dawn- the first appearance of light in the morning

Dusk- early evening when the sun is beginning to set

Linger-to be slow to leave or stop an activity

Doze- to sleep lightly

Content- pleased

Gaze- to stare

Boundary- something that shows a limit or an end

Contemplate-to consider with careful thought

Clarify- to make something easier to understand

Analyze- to examine in detail

Compare- to examine two or more objects, people, or ideas to determine how they are alike or similar

Contrast- to determine the difference between two or more objects, people, or ideas

Contribute- to give something in order to help achieve or provide for a purpose