

Overview of American Literature

Literary Movements

Fall 2016

Major themes in American Literature

- American individualism

- Also known as the self-made man
- Celebration of ambition and achievement
- Original colonists came for religious freedom
- Later colonists came looking to make their fortune with opportunities not available in class-based European societies.

Major themes in American Literature

- The American Dream

- Closely linked to American individualism
- The idea that anyone can become whatever he or she wants to become through hard work, determination, and perseverance

Major themes in American Literature

○ Cultural diversity

- A society that welcomes legal immigrants of diverse backgrounds
 - The melting pot theory—Immigrants assimilate into our culture and become Americans
 - The salad bowl theory—immigrants retain their separate identities while making up part of the whole and adopt a hyphenated American name (Chinese-Americans, for example)

Major themes in American Literature

- Tolerance

- Religious tolerance was one of the first principles in American life.
- More recent issues have included race, gender, sexual orientation, etc.

The Native American Period

(pre-1620)

Native American Period (pre-1620)

- Oral tradition of song and stories
 - Original authors unknown
 - Written accounts come after colonization
 - Includes: creation stories, myths, totems
 - Archetypes: trickster and conjurer
- Focuses on:
 - The natural world as sacred
 - Importance of land and place

Native American Period (pre-1620)

- Myth – an anonymous oral story
 - Relies on the supernatural to explore a natural phenomenon, human behavior, or mystery
 - Explain why the world is the way it is/they help make sense of the world

Native American Period (pre-1620)

- Notable Works:
 - “The Earth on the Turtle’s Back”
 - “When Grizzlies Walked Upright”
 - “Grandmother Spider Steals the Sun”
 - “Creation by Women”

The Colonial Period

(1620-1750)

Colonial Period (1620-1750)

- When colonists arrived in the new land, they created villages and towns and established new governments (while protesting the old ways in Europe)
 - French, Swedes, Dutch, German, Scots-Irish, Spanish, Africans (mostly slaves)
- Did not consider themselves “Americans” until mid-1700s
- Enormous displacement of Native-American civilizations

Colonial Period (1620-1750)

- Literature of the period was dominated by the Puritans and their religious influence
 - Emphasis on faith in one's daily life
 - Predestination- A person's fate is determined by God
 - Original Sin- All are corrupt and need a Savior
 - Puritan work ethic—belief in hard work and simple, no frills living
 - Theocracy—government ruled by Bible/church

Colonial Period (1620-1750)

- Representative Authors:
 - William Bradford (journal)
 - Anne Bradstreet (poetry)
 - Jonathan Edwards (sermon)
 - Mary Rowlandson (captivity narrative)
 - Phillis Wheatley (poetry)
 - Olaudah Equiano (slave narrative)

Though not written during Puritan times, The Crucible by Author Miller & The Scarlet Letter by Nathaniel Hawthorne depict life during the time when Puritan theocracy prevailed.

Colonial Period (1620-1750)

Colonial Period (1620-1750)

American Progress
John Gast

Revolutionary Period

(1750-1815)

Revolutionary Period (1750-1815)

- Emphasis on reason as opposed to faith alone; this was a reaction to the Puritan way of life
- Shift to a more print-based culture; literacy seen as a sign of status
- Instructive in values, highly ornate writing style; highly political and patriotic

Revolutionary Period (1750-1815)

- Representative authors:
 - Benjamin Franklin (biography, common sense aphorisms)
 - Patrick Henry (speech)
 - Thomas Paine (pamphlet)
 - Thomas Jefferson (political documents)
 - Abigail Adams (letters)

Revolutionary Period (1750-1815)

Revolutionary Period (1750-1815)

Romanticism

(1800-1865)

Romanticism (1800-1865)

- A reaction to the previous decades in which reason and rational thought dominated
- Period of invention, Manifest Destiny, abolition movement, and the “birth” of truly American Literature
- Growth of urban population in Northeast
- Growth of newspapers, lectures, debates
- Revolution in transportation and science
- Industrial revolution made “old ways” of doing things irrelevant

Romanticism (1800-1865)

- Writers celebrated:
 - Individualism
 - Nature
 - Imagination
 - Creativity
 - Emotions
- Types of writing:
 - Short Stories
 - Novels
 - Poetry
- Interest in fantasy and supernatural
- Writing can be interpreted two ways—surface and depth
- Good triumphs over evil
- Imagination over reason
- Intuition over fact

Romanticism (1800-1865)

Early Romantics

Authors began the tradition of creating imaginative literature that was distinctly American

Authors

- Washington Irving
(folktales)
- William Cullen Bryant
(poetry)
- James Fenimore
Cooper (novels)

Romanticism (1800-1865)

Fireside Poets

- The most popular poets of the time were read in the home by the fireside
- Poetry contained strong family values and patriotism
- Taught in elementary schools for memorization

Poets

- Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
- Oliver Wendell Holmes
- James Russell Lowell
- John Greenleaf Whittier

Romanticism (1800-1865)

Transcendentalists

- Hippies of the Romanticism
- Belief that man's nature is inherently good; "divine spark" or "inner light"
- Man and society are perfectible (utopia)
- Stress individualism, self-reliance, intuition

Authors

- Ralph Waldo Emerson
(essays, poetry)
- Henry David Thoreau
(essays)

Romanticism (1800-1865)

Dark Romantics

- AKA—Gothic or Anti-Transcendentalism
- Man's nature is inherently evil
- Use of supernatural
- Strong use of symbolism
- Dark landscapes, depressed characters

Poets

- Nathaniel Hawthorne (novels, short stories)
- Herman Melville (novels, short stories, poetry)
- Edgar Allan Poe (short stories, poetry, literary criticism)

Romanticism (1800-1865)

Realism

(1850-1900)

Realism (1850-1900)

- The Realistic Period includes the Civil War, significant industrial inventions, and extensive westward expansion
- Rejection of Romantic view of life as too idealistic
- Writers write about real-life issues and complex events of the time rather than idealized people or places
- Objective narrator

Realism (1850-1900)

- Realistic authors convey the reality of life, however harsh
 - Characters reflect ordinary people in everyday life: determined yet flawed, struggling to overcome the difficulties of war, family, natural disasters, and human weaknesses
- Good doesn't always triumph over evil
- Nature is a powerful force beyond man's control
- Racism persisted beyond slavery—Reconstruction, Jim Crow, KKK, etc.

Realism (1850-1900)

Transitional Writers

- Transition from Romanticism to Realism
- Express Transcendental ideas in poetry, with realistic detail
- Experimented with new poetic techniques such as free verse and slant rhyme

Authors

- Walt Whitman
(poetry)
- Emily Dickinson
(poetry)

Realism (1850-1900)

Civil War Writers

- Primarily concerned with:
 - The war
 - Slavery
 - Women's suffrage (right to vote)

Authors

- Abraham Lincoln
- Robert E. Lee
- Mary Chesnut
- Sojourner Truth
- Harriet Beecher Stowe
- Frederick Douglass

Realism (1850-1900)

Local Color Writers (Regionalists)

- Focused on a particular region of the country
 - Seeking to represent accurately the culture and beliefs of that area
- Emphasized:
 - Physical landscape
 - Habits
 - Occupations
 - Speech (dialect) of the area's people

Authors

- Mark Twain (Mississippi River valley)
- Kate Chopin (the South, particularly Louisiana)
- Willa Cather (the Midwest, particularly Nebraska)

Naturalism

(1880-1940)

Naturalism (1880-1940)

- Realism turned to Naturalism when literary writers were exposed to the views of three scientific/political works
 - Charles Darwin—biological determinism
 - Sigmund Freud—psychological determinism
 - Karl Marx—socio-economic determinism

Determinism—the belief that humans cannot be held morally responsible for their actions due to circumstances beyond their control.

Naturalism (1880-1940)

- Focused on grim reality
- Observed characters like scientists observe lab animals
- Viewed nature and the universe as indifferent, even hostile, to man
 - Universe is godless, cold, and indifferent
- Life is meaningless
- Fate=Chance (no free will)
- Characters are helpless victims—trapped by nature, the environment, or their own heritage

Naturalism (1880-1940)

- Jack London (novels, short stories)
- Stephen Crane (novels, short stories, poetry)
- Edwin Arlington Robinson (poetry)
- Ambrose Bierce (short stories)

Modernism

(1900-1950)

Modernism (1900-1950)

- Writers affected by:
 - World War I, World War II, fear of communism, beginning of the Cold War
 - Roaring 20s, the Great Depression, commercialism
 - Increased population from immigration
 - Lingering racial tensions
 - Technological changes
 - Fear of eroding traditions

Modernism (1900-1950)

- Modern writers are known for:
 - Themes of alienation and disconnectedness
 - Frequent use of irony and understatement
 - Experimentation with new literary techniques in fiction and poetry
 - Stream of consciousness
 - Interior dialogue
 - Fragments
 - Creating a unique style
 - Rise of ethnic female writers

Modernism (1900-1950)

The Lost Generation

- A group of writers who chose to live in Paris after WWI
- Themes of alienation and change
- Confronted people's fears, despair, and disillusionment

Writers

- T.S. Eliot (poetry)
- F. Scott Fitzgerald (fiction)
- Ernest Hemingway (fiction)

Modernism (1900-1950)

Harlem Renaissance

- Flourishing of African-American authors
- Included music and art
- Two goals:
 - Write about African-American experience
 - Create literature by African-Americans that could rival anything created by anyone else

Writers

- Langston Hughes (poetry)
- Zora Neale Hurston (fiction)
- Claude McKay (poetry)

Modernism (1900-1950)

Southern Renaissance

- Follow in the footsteps of earlier local color writers, in that they focus on the South

Writers

- Margaret Mitchell
- William Faulkner
- Flannery O'Connor

Modernism (1900-1950)

Traditional Poets

Carl Sandburg

Robert Frost

Experimental Poets

e.e. cummings

Modern dramatists

Arthur Miller

Tennessee Williams

Postmodernism

(1950-present)

Postmodernism (1950-present)

- unprecedented prosperity
- global conflict
 - Korean War, Vietnam War, the end of the Cold War, the rise of terrorism, Gulf War, 9/11, Iraqi War. War in Afghanistan
- social protest
 - the civil rights movement, the women's rights movement, the gay rights movement
- mass culture and consumerism; media saturation
- rise of technology and space exploration
- the digital revolution

Postmodernism (1950-present)

- Eclectic—a collection of a little bit of everything
- Create traditional works without traditional structure
- Address social issues related to gender/race/youthful rebellion
- Questions traditional values
- Often critical and ironic
- No heroes/anti-heroes are common
- Detached, unemotional
- Individuals are isolated

Postmodernism (1950-present)

The Beat Poets

- Pre-hippies, highly intellectual, exuberant language and behavior
 - Jack Kerouac
 - William S. Burroughs
 - Allen Ginsberg

Confessional Poets

- Used anguish of their own lives to reveal hidden despair
 - Sylvia Plath
 - Anne Sexton
 - Robert Lowell

Postmodernism (1950-present)

American Authors

- J.D. Salinger
- James Thurber
- John Updike
- Truman Capote
- Stephen King
- Joyce Carol Oates

Multicultural Literature

- Jewish
 - Elie Wiesel
- African-American
 - Ralph Ellison, Maya Angelou, Alice Walker
- Latino-American
 - Julia Alvarez, Sandra Cisneros
- Asian-American
 - Amy Tan, Maxine Hong Kingston