

Mrs. Gatlin's Weekly Update

I love seeing your faces and your singing videos!

THIS WEEK...

- >We reviewed how to navigate sheet music.
- >We learned a new rhythm warm-up.
- >We began to learn our performance music.

NEXT WEEK

- >We will learn about time signatures and note value.
- >We will learn some breathing exercises.
- >We will learn about proper diction and annunciation for singing.
- >We will continue to rehearse our performance music.

ASSIGNMENTS

- >Video Assignment #1: due 9/4
- >Video Assignment #2: due 9/11
- >Video Assignment #3: due 9/11
- >Quarter, half & whole notes in 4/4 time: due 9/11

THIS & THAT...

- >Thank you to everyone for the cameras!
- >Now that we have started learning our performance music, I think everyone understands the importance of being able to navigate through sheet music. :)
- >You might be asking...how is Mrs. Gatlin going to teach students face-to-face and Remote Learners at the same time? Students will need their chromebook in the classroom every day. We will begin our classes together just like we have since August 17, with our warm-ups. The mini-lesson I am teaching through the Meet to our Remote Learners will be projected in the classroom so our F2F students can participate. Any assignments done in class will be done by all students on chromebooks. When it is time to rehearse our performance music, Remote Learners will be dismissed from the Meet for Independent Rehearsal using the resources I have posted in Google Classroom while we have F2F rehearsal in the classroom. All students, F2F and Remote, will still be assigned Video assignments.
