

While the World Watched
By Carolyn Maull McKinstry

Tic-Tac-Toe Assignment

You must choose three assignments in a vertical or diagonal pattern.

Make a timeline of the events from September 15, 1963.	Go to www.wordle.net and make a word cloud including words that relate to While the World Watched and the Civil Rights Movement. (ex: segregation)	Draw a picture of the antique clock, stopped at exactly 10:22 A.M. Be creative and add detail to the clock.
The McKinstry children missed out on many normal childhood activities because of their strict father, if you were Carolyn what would you have said to your father to try to convince him to let you participate.	Pick your favorite quote from the beginning of one of the chapters and tell what that quote means to you.	The Sunday of the bombing was youth Sunday. Carolyn worked as a church secretary. If you were there that day, what would your duties have been?
Make a 20 question quiz. Questions can be multiple choice, fill-in-the-blank, or true/false. You must include an answer key.	Make a collage (group of pictures) of events from While the World Watched.	While the World Watched obviously has an effect on most readers. Explain to me how this book personally impacted your life. Has it made you more accepting of others' differences? Has it made you examine your own life and how you treat others?