

My Favorite Teacher

My favorite teacher is Mr. John Arent. I think that Mr. Arent rightfully deserves recognition because he is the best teacher a kid could have. I think about teachers boring their students and they drift off and they don't pay attention. A few years past, I was failing math but with Mr. Arent's help I understand fractions and decimals very clearly. I also think Mr. Arent deserves to be noticed because he always encourages us to give 100%. Mr. Arent runs a lot of marathons and when he is tired and wants to give up he doesn't and gives 100% and he uses that as an example. Another reason my teacher Mr. Arent deserves to be recognized, is when we don't get something he will help us until we do get it. He comes up with fun games and work that interests us. Most students that don't have a teacher like Mr. Arent and often don't pay attention. I feel as though Mr. Arent should win the award because he is an amazing, inspiring worthy teacher and if any teacher deserves to win the award it is Mr. Arent. From the first day of school I knew I was going to love being in his class. When I was in 4th grade I knew that Mr. Arent was really cool and I was correct. I appreciate Mr. Arent and all he has done for me to make me a better student so I can go to sixth grade and I really want to thank him for all he has done for me. Mr. Arent also has this thing called lanyards, you get one when you are good and when you earn 3 tickets you become a lanyard. When you are a lanyard you get opportunities that others don't have. I'm a lanyard and I think what Mr. Arent does for people who give their all is amazing. I think that Mr. Arent should win the award because he is the Best Teacher Ever!
