

and the consumer decision-making process

Identify elements of the consumer decision-making process while watching House Hunters

What city is the episode taking place?
What do the participants want?

What caused the participants to want to move?

How do the participants search for houses?

What are the pros and cons for each house?

Which house do they select? Why?

Are they happy with their purchase?