

Third Grade Units of Study 2021-2022

Reading	Writing	Math	Science	Social Studies
Building a Reading Life Launching the Reader's Workshop	Crafting Stories Launching the Writer's Workshop	Unit 1: Understand Multiplication and Area	Forces and Interactions	Geography
Fiction/Mystery Developing deeper understandings of characters and plot (i.e. predicting, summarizing, making inferences, retelling and revising ideas).	Personal Narratives &amp; Mystery Narrative Writing - Exploring the Mystery genre	Unit 2: Multiplication and Division
Informational Text/ Reading to Learn Informational reading to determine importance, the author's perspective, and apply analytical thinking skills to compare, contrast, and categorize.	Informational Writing Informational/explanatory writing utilizing a variety of text structure	Unit 3: Addition and Subtraction Strategies and Applications	Weather and Climate  Science Fair Class projects	United States
Reading Around a Topic Reading multiple informational texts on a topic to deepen understanding	Changing the World Persuasive Speeches and Editorials
Reading Like a Scientist Reading closely and thinking deeply to develop theories about a research topic.	Writing About Research Informational/explanatory writing about a research topic	Unit 4: Fractions	Interdependent Relationships in Ecosystems	China Kenya
Myths, Legends &amp; Folktales Identifying themes and exploring genres.	Adapting and Writing Fairy Tales Writing fiction utilizing craft moves and structures learned from mentor texts	Unit 5: Measurement and Data
		Unit 6: Geometry

