

Fourth Grade Units of Study 2021-2022

Reading	Writing	Math	Science	Social Studies
Interpreting Characters Launching the Reading Workshop Developing inference and interpretation skills to trace theme and understand the complexity of character	Character Essay Response to Literature: Literary Essay Writing	Unit 1: Place Value and Whole Number Operations	Earth's Processes	The Three Worlds: Native Americans, Europeans, and Africans Meet in the New York State
Reading the Weather, Reading the World Informational reading to determine text structures, summarize, synthesize and analyze author's craft	Informational Book Informative/Explanatory writing tied to the reading unit on weather	Unit 2: Multiplication and Division Problems	Science Fair Projects
Reading History: The American Revolution Exploration of historical fiction	Persuasive Essay Argumentative essay grounded in the study of the American Revolution	Unit 3: Extend and Apply Multiplication	Structures & Functions Electricity & Magnetism	The Impact of Colonial and Revolutionary War Periods on New York and the New Nations
Theme Study with Book Clubs Identifying themes and comparing and contrasting how themes are developed across texts	Realistic Fiction Narrative Writing	Unit 4: Fractions and Decimals		National & Local Government
Poetry Exploring poetry genre to identify and analyze structural elements	Responding to Reading Creative Response Writing	Unit 5 -Operations with Fractions	Energy, Waves and Information	Industrial Revolution
		Unit 6: Two-Dimensional Figures and Symmetry
		Unit 7: Measurement, Data and Time		