

I. Sort each word according to its part of speech (POS)

Adjectives
Nouns
Verbs

Pass the Chicken! Choose three words and list five (5) examples of each. Answers cannot be from your notes.

Vocabulary List #4

Lynx

Quiz: _____

Annihilate
(verb)

To destroy completely; to reduce to complete ruin.

Hurricane Katrina annihilated the coast of Louisiana nearly 20 years ago.

Preposterous
(adj)

Too absurd to be believed; asinine; ridiculous

It's preposterous to think that pigs can fly!

Scrupulous
(adj)

Marked by close attention to the smallest details

Investigators MUST be scrupulous when collecting evidence from a crime scene.

Legendary
(adj)

Well-known, famous; talked about for or over a long period of time.

Kobe Bryant's career was legendary; so was his death.

Lucrative
(adj)

Producing wealth or profit

Who knew that social media could be so lucrative for the young folk?

Enthrall
(verb)

To hold the attention of as though under a spell

Enthralling
(adj)

Tik Tok videos are enthralling.

Pander
(verb)

To give OR promise what is wanted (in order to please someone); bribe

Politicians pander to voters in order to win elections.

Tedious
(adj)

Seemingly going on for a long time; boring

Homework feels tedious at times.

Apathy
(Noun)

A lack of interest or concern, enthusiasm, or interest; indifferent.

During COVID shutdowns, students felt great apathy for anything school related.

Inundate
(Verb)

To overwhelm someone with something.

Google Classroom inundates our emails with notifications and assignment postings.

