Public Schools

2nd Grade

History and Social Science Curriculum Framework 2015

Dinwiddie County Public Schools provides each student the opportunity to become a productive citizen, engaging the entire community in the educational needs of our children.

Dinwiddie County Public Schools
History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.1 a

The student will demonstrate skills for historical thinking, geographical analysis, economic decision making, and responsible citizenship by

a) identifying artifacts and primary and secondary sources to understand events in American history

Essential Understandings	Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:
Identifying artifacts and primary and secondary sources includes viewing and using information sources to draw conclusions. An artifact is an object or tool that tells us about people from the past. A primary source is an artifact, document, image, or other source of information that was created during the time under study. A secondary source is a document, image, or other source of information that relates or discusses information originally presented elsewhere	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • View pictures of pottery to make observations, ask questions, and draw conclusions about the lives of the Powhatan, Lakota, and Pueblo people. • Use images of methods of communication and/or transportation to describe important developments and innovations in United States history. • View an early map of the United States and compare it to a current map of the United States. • View pictures of people working in the past and present. Ask questions about how jobs and resources have changed over time. • View images of American symbols (e.g., Washington Monument, Statue of Liberty) from long ago and compare them to images of those symbols today.

Dinwiddie County Public Schools
History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.1 b

The student will demonstrate skills for historical thinking, geographical analysis, economic decision making, and responsible citizenship by
b) using basic map skills to locate places on maps and globes to support an understanding of American history

Essential Understandings

Maps help develop an awareness of where historical places are located in America.

Maps use directionality and symbols to identify or indicate a location.

Geographic information obtained from maps supports an understanding of American history.

Using simple maps develops an awareness of how places in the United States have changed from the past to the present.

Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:

- Use information found on a map to ask questions and draw conclusions about American history.
- Use a United States map to discuss map elements such as directionality and symbols.
- Create and/or label a simple map to show the location of select rivers, mountain ranges, and lakes in the United States.
- Use a map or globe to compare how people adapt to the environment to satisfy their wants.

Dinwiddie County Public Schools
History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.1 c

The student will demonstrate skills for historical thinking, geographical analysis, economic decision making, and responsible citizenship by

c) using and creating graphs, diagrams, and pictures to determine characteristics of people, places, or events to support an understanding of American history;

Essential Understandings

Graphs, diagrams, and pictures help students develop an understanding of people, places, and events in American history.

Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:

- Use a Venn diagram to organize information about transportation in the past and the present. Create a class Venn diagram to compare the information gathered.
- Sort images of historical figures in American history by specified characteristics.
- Create a chart about American Indian cultures that includes pictures or descriptions of their land, resources, food, shelter, or clothing.
- Gather information about natural, human, and capital resources used during a school day. Create a class graph to determine which type of resource was used most often.
- Create a diagram of how people have made contributions to their communities over time.

Dinwiddie County Public Schools
History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.1 d

The student will demonstrate skills for historical thinking, geographical analysis, economic decision making, and responsible citizenship by
d) asking appropriate questions to solve a problem;

Essential Understandings	Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:
Asking a variety of questions extends learning and deepens understanding. Asking questions involves making observations about the world and framing them as inquiries to solve a problem.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ask questions before, during, and after reading about how the contributions of selected individuals affected the lives of Americans.• Generate questions before voting to make class decisions.• Generate questions about an artifact or image to determine its purpose, use, and time period.• Use images of different locations in the United States to generate questions about problems the inhabitants faced.• Examine choices made by influential people in United States history and ask, “Why did they make this choice?” and “Was it a good decision?”

Dinwiddie County Public Schools
History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.1 e

The student will demonstrate skills for historical thinking, geographical analysis, economic decision making, and responsible citizenship by

e) comparing and contrasting people, places, or events in American history;

Essential Understandings

Comparing and contrasting examines similarities and differences among people, places, or events.

Communities in the United States have different physical and cultural characteristics.

Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:

- Create a class Venn diagram to compare the lives of famous Americans.
- Create models that reflect the physical and cultural characteristics of the homes of American Indian people, and describe how the models are similar and different.
- Compare and contrast the reasons we celebrate various holidays (e.g., Labor Day, Memorial Day) in the United States.
- Create a graphic organizer to compare how holidays are celebrated in the United States.

Dinwiddie County Public Schools
History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.1 f

The student will demonstrate skills for historical thinking, geographical analysis, economic decision making, and responsible citizenship by

f) recognizing direct cause-and-effect relationships

Essential Understandings	Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:
A cause-and-effect relationship is a relationship in which one event (the cause) makes another event (the effect) happen. Identifying cause-and-effect relationships helps us understand specific events in United States history. Cause-and-effect relationships can be observed in local, state, and national history.	Create a flow chart to show how types of communication and transportation developed over time (e.g., the development of communication through letters, the telegraph, the telephone, the cell phone). Discuss how each invention built upon what came before. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use a cause-and-effect or flow chart to show how selected famous Americans caused the present to be different from the past. • Discuss how the location, climate, and physical surroundings of different American Indian cultures affected their homes, occupations, and transportation. • Draw pictures to show how limited resources affect people's choices about producing and consuming goods and services. Discuss how the traits of a good citizen affect classroom activities.

Dinwiddie County Public Schools
History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.1 g

The student will demonstrate skills for historical thinking, geographical analysis, economic decision making, and responsible citizenship by
g) making connections between past and present;

Essential Understandings

Everyday life in the United States today is different from everyday life long ago.

People, events, and developments have brought changes to the United States.

Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:

- Survey family members or school officials to determine how they celebrated various holidays when they were in elementary school.
- Create or read a story where students predict how life in the United States today would be different without technology such as the Internet, cell phones, and computers.
- Create or gather images that illustrate acts of bartering. Create or gather images of people using money to make purchases. Discuss the similarities and differences between bartering and using money.
- Create a flow chart to show how types of communication developed over time (e.g., the development of communication through letters, the telegraph, the telephone, the cell phone).
- Compare selected famous Americans to identify common characteristics that helped them create change.
- Use books, images, and Web sites to compare American Indian cultures from long ago and today.

Dinwiddie County Public Schools

History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.1 h

The student will demonstrate skills for historical thinking, geographical analysis, economic decision making, and responsible citizenship by
h) using a decision-making model to make informed decisions;

Essential Understandings

Choices involve getting more of one thing by giving up something else.

All decisions involve costs and benefits.

A cost is what you give up when you decide to do something.

A benefit is what satisfies a want.

Students make better choices when they consider the costs and benefits of their decisions.

Decision-making models are used to make decisions for the future and to better understand the decisions people made in the past.

Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:

- Use a decision-making model to discuss the costs and benefits of
 - decisions made by characters in children's literature
 - which continent each student would like to visit
 - an action to improve the school or community.
- Create a product and participate in a marketplace simulation.

Sample Decision-Making Model

History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.1 i

The student will demonstrate skills for historical thinking, geographical analysis, economic decision making, and responsible citizenship by
i) practicing good citizenship skills and respect for rules and laws while collaborating, compromising, and participating in classroom activities;

Essential Understandings	Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:
Good citizens <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • collaborate to achieve shared goals • compromise to reach an agreement • participate in classroom activities to demonstrate respect for rules. People throughout United States history have collaborated and compromised to achieve common goals and to be successful as good citizens.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take part in the voting process to make classroom decisions. • Work in groups to determine actions that can improve the school and community. • Create illustrations that show people following rules related to protecting the rights and property of others. • Identify the good citizenship skills of selected individuals who had an impact on the lives of Americans, and explain how these skills affected the contributions they made. • Identify how celebrating selected holidays is an example of practicing good citizenship skills.

Dinwiddie County Public Schools
History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.1 j

The student will demonstrate skills for historical thinking, geographical analysis, economic decision making, and responsible citizenship by
j) defending positions orally and in writing, using content vocabulary.

Essential Understandings	Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:
Developing fluency in social studies vocabulary improves comprehension of oral, written, and visual sources of information about United States history. Comprehending oral, written, and visual sources involves using and interacting with a variety of sources. Defending positions, using content vocabulary, involves the application of vocabulary to make an argument.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discuss the meaning of an individual's right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness as well as equality under the law. • Read a variety of texts about Rosa Parks, Jackie Robinson, Cesar Chavez, and Martin Luther King, Jr. Explain how their contributions have changed the lives of Americans. • View images of workers across the United States. Explain how people in the past and present have made economic choices because resources, goods, and services were scarce

History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.2

The student will demonstrate knowledge of the United States by describing important developments and innovations in United States history, including developments and innovations related to communication and transportation.

Refer to SOL experience:
 2.1 a,b,c,d,e,f,g,h,i

Essential Understandings

Innovations in methods of communication and modes of transportation have changed the way that people live and work.

Communities change over time for a variety of reasons.

Essential Knowledge

Terms to know

- community: A place where people live, work, and play
- innovation: Something new or different
- communication: A way of sending information to people

History and Social Science Curriculum

Standard 2.3 a,b,c

The student will compare the lives and contributions of three American Indian cultures of the past and present, with emphasis on

- a) the Powhatan of the Eastern Woodlands;
- b) the Lakota of the Plains; and
- c) the Pueblo peoples of the Southwest.

Refer to SOL experience:
2.1 a,b,c,d,e,f,g,

Essential Understandings

American Indian peoples have lived in Virginia and in other regions of America for thousands of years.

American Indians developed different cultures because they lived in different environments of North America.

American Indians made contributions to life in America in the past and continue to make contributions in the present.

Essential Knowledge

Terms to know

- culture: The beliefs, customs, and way of life of a group of people
- region: Places that have common (the same) characteristics
- environment: Surroundings

Comparison of three American Indian cultures of the past

Region	Indians	Homes	Occupations	Transportation
Eastern Woodlands	Powhatan	Wood frame houses with bark/reed covering	Fishermen, hunters, farmers	Walked, paddled canoes
Plains	Lakota	Teepees	Hunters, horsemen	Walked, used horses
Southwest	Pueblo	Multistory terraced buildings	Farmers, hunters	Walked

Contributions of American Indians

- Arts (pottery, weaving, carving)
- Knowledge of the environment
- Respect for nature
- Farming of corn and tobacco

Changes in American Indian cultures

- American Indian cultures have changed over time.
- Today, American Indians live and work to preserve their culture and teach people about past and present contributions to Virginia and the United States.

Standard 2.4 a,b,c,d,e,f,g,h,i,j,

The student will describe how the contributions of selected individuals changed the lives of Americans, with emphasis on

- a) Christopher Columbus;
- b) Benjamin Franklin;
- c) Abraham Lincoln;
- d) George Washington Carver;
- e) Helen Keller;
- f) Thurgood Marshall;
- g) Rosa Parks;
- h) Jackie Robinson;
- i) Cesar Chavez; and
- j) Martin Luther King, Jr.

Refer to SOL experience:
2.1 a,c,d,e,f,g,i,j

Essential Understandings

Selected individuals in the past made contributions that changed the lives of Americans.

Essential Knowledge

Contributions of selected individuals

- Christopher Columbus: He led the way for European exploration and colonization of the Americas.
- Benjamin Franklin: He proved that electricity was present in lightning through his kite experiment. He started the first library and the first volunteer fire department in America.
- Abraham Lincoln: He was the president of the United States who helped to free African American slaves.
- George Washington Carver: He was an African American man who studied science and plants. He became a teacher. He developed hundreds of uses for peanuts, sweet potatoes, and soybeans.
- Helen Keller: She overcame her disabilities and worked to help others who were blind and deaf.
- Thurgood Marshall: He was a lawyer who defended people at a time when not all people had equal rights. He was the first African American justice of the United States Supreme Court.
- Rosa Parks: She was an African American woman who refused to give up her seat on a public bus, as was required by law many years ago. She helped to bring about changes in laws and worked so that all people would have equal rights.
- Jackie Robinson: He was the first African American player in the major league of baseball. His actions helped to bring about other opportunities for African Americans.
- Cesar Chavez: He was a Mexican American leader who worked to improve conditions for farm workers.
- Martin Luther King, Jr.: He was an African American minister who worked so that all people would be treated fairly. He led peaceful marches and gave speeches.
- NOTE: Susan B. Anthony must also be taught during the crosswalk years.
 - She led the struggle to give women equal rights, including the right to vote.

Standard 2.6 a,b,c

The student will develop map skills by using globes and maps of the world and the United States to locate

- a) the seven continents and the five oceans;
- b) the equator, the Prime Meridian, and the four hemispheres; and
- c) major rivers, mountain ranges, lakes, and other physical features in the United States

Refer to SOL experience:
2.1 a,b,c,e,f,h,

Essential Understandings

Maps can be used to locate land and water features.

Maps and globes help people study Earth.

Experiences may include but are not limited to the following:

Terms to know

- land: The solid surface of Earth
- continent: A large body of land on Earth
- equator: An imaginary line around the middle of Earth that divides it into the Northern and Southern Hemispheres
- Prime Meridian: An imaginary line that divides Earth into the Eastern and Western Hemispheres
- hemisphere: Half of a sphere (globe); created by the Prime Meridian or the equator

The seven continents

- North America, South America, Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, and Antarctica

The five oceans

- Arctic Ocean, Atlantic Ocean, Indian Ocean, Pacific Ocean, and Southern Ocean

The four hemispheres

- Northern, Southern, Eastern, and Western

Selected rivers, mountain ranges, and lakes in the United States

- James River, Mississippi River, Rio Grande, Appalachian Mountains, Rocky Mountains, and the general area of the Great Lakes

The student will locate and describe the relationship between the environment and culture of

- a) the Powhatan of the Eastern Woodlands;
- b) the Lakota of the Plains; and
- c) the Pueblo Indians of the Southwest

Refer to SOL experience:
2.1 a,b,c,e,g

Essential Understandings

In the past and present, American Indians have respected and protected the environments that make up their homelands.

Essential Knowledge

Environments of three American Indian cultures of the past

	Climate	Land
Eastern Woodlands (Powhatan)	Mild winters; hot, humid summers	Rivers, hills, mountains, coastland
Plains (Lakota)	Hot summers; harsh, cold winters	Plains, prairies, rolling hills
Southwest (Pueblo people)	Hot days, cold nights, little rainfall	High flatlands

Ways American Indians related to their environment

- The Powhatan farmed, fished, hunted, used trees for homes and canoes, and gathered plants for food.
- The Lakota moved around the region to hunt for buffalo. They later used horses for transportation.
- The Pueblo people farmed the land. They lived in villages in houses made of adobe (clay).
