

Type this worksheet for the first book you read. The worksheet is due _____.

Title and author: _____

- |                                  |                                  |                                  |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Character: _____Description: | Character: _____Description: | Character: _____Description: |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|

4. Which of these characters would make the best superhero? Explain your answer with evidence from the text.

5. Describe three conflicts that occur in the story. One must be related to race. Explain the conflict and find a passage / quote (including page number) to support your answer.

	Person vs. Society	Person vs. Person	Person vs. Self
Description of conflict:
Passage / quote that illustrates conflict:	Page # _____	Page # _____	Page # _____

6. Write a paragraph explaining a change that occurs due to one of the conflicts. Be sure to have a clear topic sentence and two different supporting details with evidence from the text.

Name(s): _____

Butler Bookshelf #1: Connection

Task: Find an article that connects one of the conflicts in your book to a current issue in American society. Read the article in order to determine the main ideas. While you are reading, highlight the specific supporting details that teach you the main ideas.

Title of Article:

Date:

Website:

Brief explanation of why you trust this source:

Brief explanation of the conflict that relates to your Butler Bookshelf book:

Main Idea #1:

Main Idea #2:

Main Idea #3:

Butler Bookshelf #1: Reflection

Context: Reading responses are your thoughts and feelings about what you have read.

After you read a chapter or section of the book, write your personal response. State your thoughts, feelings, questions and reactions about situations, characters, theme, symbols, conflicts and any other elements that interest you. Quote brief passages to explain your ideas. Avoid plot summary. The following is a list of suggested leads. You may create your own. Use only one per entry.

- The character I most admire is _____ because...
- This character reminds me of myself because...
- This character reminds me of _____ because...
- I like/dislike _____ because...
- The relationship between _____ and _____ is interesting because...
- This situation reminds me of a similar situation in my life. It happened when...
- This situation reminds me of another time in history when...
- These ideas here remind me of the ideas in the novel _____ because...
- This part of the book is realistic/unrealistic because...
- I cannot believe the _____ that _____ experiences...
- This section explains the title. The title means...
- I don't understand this because...

For each entry, use the following heading:

Name:

Pages reflected on: