Young Women in Harmony teaches emerging voices the skills, joy and rewards of performing and singing four part harmony, barbershop style. The festival delivers both musical excellence and education while giving young women a taste of show business!

Songs: Rockin' Robin and Puff the Magic Dragon

Learning MP3s/CD and music will be provided to registered participants prior to the event.

Clinicians: Indigo Quartet

More Information

The registration fee is $20 per singer, payable to Metro Mix Chorus. The fee provides sheet music, learning MP3s/CD, lunch and snacks, and a souvenir t-shirt. (Cost is $15 per singer if 3 or more sisters are registered.)

Although registrations are accepted through the day of the event, register by September 9 to reserve a t-shirt.

Check-in for the event starts at 8:30 am on September 23. Rehearsals start at 9:00 am.

There is a public performance featuring the YWIH Chorus, Indigo Quartet and Metro Mix Chorus at 4:00 pm. Invite friends & family! Wear or bring capris or pants for the performance.

Picking a Part

T

The tenor is the highest vocal part and is a harmony part sung above the melody. In the music, it is written as the soprano line in the treble clef with the stems going up.

L

The lead part is the melody part and is written in the music as the alto line in the treble clef with the stems going down.

Br

The baritone is a harmony part with a vocal range similar to the lead. In the music it is written as the male tenor part in the bass clef with the stems going up and is sung an octave above where it is written in the music.

B

The bass part is the lowest part in barbershop music. In the written music, it is written as the male bass part in the bass clef with the stems going down. It is also sung an octave above where it's written in the music.
