

Rice Lake Area Scholarship Foundation

PO Box 229, Rice Lake, WI 54868

The Rice Lake Area Scholarship Foundation is a non-profit charitable corporation. Its purpose is to establish and maintain a scholarship program to provide inspiration and financial aid to high school seniors who wish to further their education upon graduation. Recipients are selected by a committee of board members based on the criteria of scholarship, initiative, leadership potential, school and community activities, and a personal evaluation of goals and needs. This is the 54th year the foundation has provided scholarships for Rice Lake High School seniors.

Applications must be word processed or typed. Please use a point size of 11 or larger. Use only space provided. Do not change the layout of the form and no additional pages will be accepted. The scholarship form is available in Student Services or on RLHS/ Student Services/ Scholarship web page.
