Oak Ridge Middle School 6th Grade Orientation

All incoming Oak Ridge 6th grade students will have an opportunity to experience and learn about middle school life, expectations, and activities during 6th Grade Orientation, referred to as MYFI (Make You Feel Important). Based on the team assignment, your child will attend the following MYFI session:

Team 6A

Friday, August 16
Parent meeting

9:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
9:00 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.

Team 6B

Friday, August 16
Parent meeting

12:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
12:30 p.m. to 1:15 p.m.

Please have your child check-in for MYFI inside the main entrance prior to the starting time listed above. Orientation will be facilitated in small groups by 8th grade students. Students will meet other students on their team, take a customized tour, review his/her schedule, open lockers, practice the combination, learn about middle school, and have fun.

6th grade parent meeting with teachers and administrators will take place at the beginning of MYFI for approximately 45 minutes. Parents will meet teachers, learn about classes, and have questions answered. This meeting will replace the 6th grade parent night usually offered the first week of school. Teachers are always available through email or phone during the school year.

Your child should be picked up at the end time listed (11:30 a.m. or 3:00 p.m.). Parents can bring their child's school supplies, put them in his/her locker, and tour the building after orientation.

We look forward to meeting your child at MYFI on August 16th!

Oak Ridge Middle School New Student Orientation

All students new to the Linn-Mar District will be given an opportunity to experience and learn about middle school life, expectations, and activities during an orientation program. This orientation is referred to as MYFI (Make You Feel Important).

Your student has been scheduled to attend the following MYFI session:

Friday, August 16

9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.

Parents are encouraged to drop students off to the Oak Ridge Cafeteria, inside the main entrance, prior to the starting time listed above. Orientation will be facilitated by 8th grade students. Your child will be given an opportunity to meet other students in his/her grade, take a customized tour, review his/her schedule, practice their locker and combination, get to know other new students, and have some fun.

Parents are invited to return to Oak Ridge to pick up your child at 10:30 a.m. This time is also an opportunity for parents to bring in their students' classroom supplies and put them in their locker and tour the building. We look forward to meeting all new students during orientation. Please note your student's scheduled orientation time on your August calendar so he/she can attend MYFI!

If you have questions about orientation you may contact:
Jessica Deahl at (319) 730-3559, jdeahl@linnmar.k12.ia.us

**Please contact Mrs. Deahl if your student is unable to attend the scheduled session.
